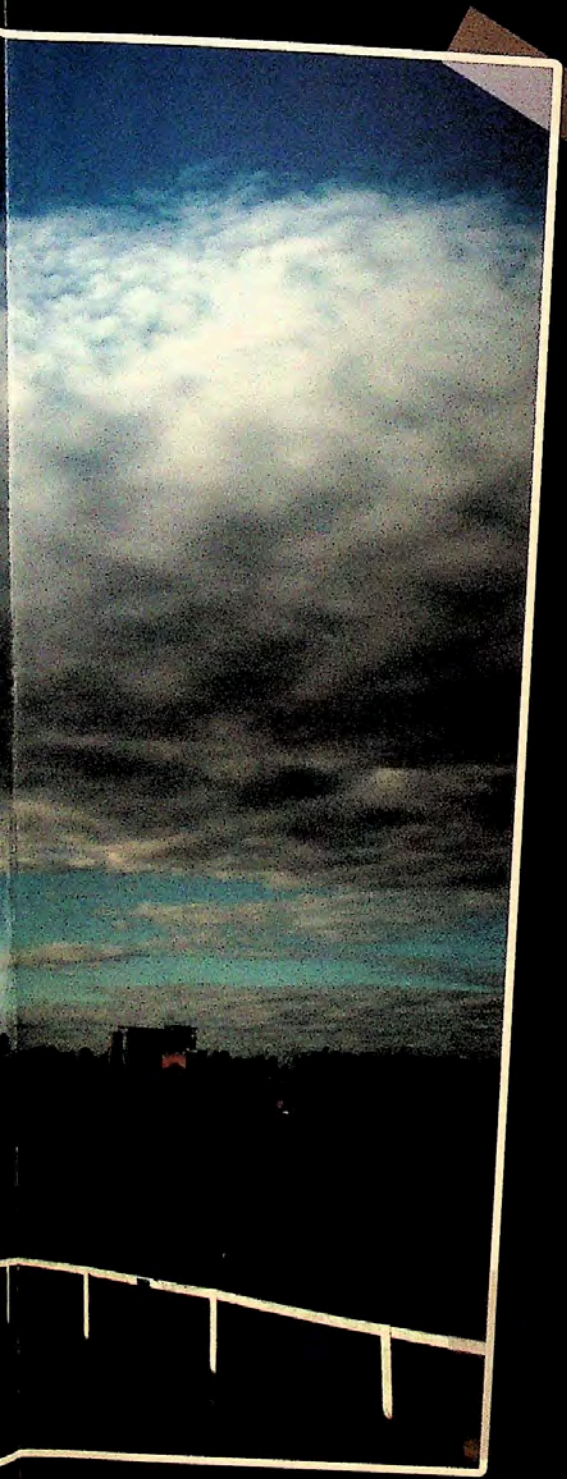
JACARANDA 2004



Is it so small a thing
to have enjoyed the sun,
to have lived light in
the spring, to have loved,
to have thought, to have done?

President's Message

Avondale is a place to remember - for life long friendships, quality education, good times, a caring Christian environment. It's a place where faith is strengthened and developed, where staff are interested in the progress of each student - an ideal place for social, intellectual and spiritual growth.

Past Jacarandas impress you with the extraordinary proportion of Avondale graduates who have achieved outstanding careers. This Jacaranda is vibrant with life and the energies of the present. I am confident that the students of 2004 will move forward with equal vision, faith, and achievement.

John Cox
PRESIDENT

Editorial

Summer, autumn, winter, spring.

The never ending cycle that each year brings.

An unfathomable amount of emotions, friendships, events and experiences.

Shooting hoops down in the audo. Stressing about an essay due at 5 with nothing but a blank screen to your credit.

The life of extreme opposites. Surfing with friends at cathos then the next day cursing the much needed rain while running between classes.

It is an enjoyable life. An experience that will never leave us. One we are told that we will miss once we leave.

In years to come whilst flipping through this scrapbook, we hope that it will bring back vivid memories of the times spent...
playing sport in the audo...
relaxing on the beach...
hanging out with friends...
working till the wee hours of the morning...
worshipping and praising our wonderful saviour...
the oportunities to serve within our community...
and most of all just having fun!

Enjoy!

Monique Rogers

They are an elusive lot, seen flitting here and there, dedicated to an often-thankless job. This department are of so much demand they even have a "HELP (emergency) line" (ext 111 for those of you who don't know). Can you imagine what mayhem would exist without their talented minds? No food from the caf, no getting into the dorms (guessing that would be bad), no doing assignments, lecturers notes all hand written, hour long queues at the library desk, hand writing all your assignments, no internet and yes that means no email. No doubt, it truly would be Armageddon with out the IT teams presence on the campus. Sure, they may not be super fly for a bunch of white guys but these computer nerds (meant in the most affectionate way) are truly the unsung heroes of college life.

Tristin Prescott & Andrew Lee

So thank you guys for your hard work, long hours, and i'm sure many headaches. On behalf of all who call on your sevices knowingly and maybe not so knowingly thank you! While at times it may seem your efforts go unnoticed you are greatly appreciated!!!

For all this, Jacaranda 2004 is dedicated to you!!!

I just don't know what to say sometimes.
In the midst of all the pain.
Sometimes I just can't describe the void.
The nothingness won't go away

And then it comes to me again and again . . .
Just like waves rolls in from sea. My savior's love its there just waiting for me.
To open up and let Him in.
Sometimes life just runs away from me
Leaving me staring at the wall

And there I find is the answer
For all my pain and suffering
My discontent will be subtracted and in it's place He'll offer peace
He offers peace
He gives me peace
Christ gives me peace

Firstly we would like to thank God, who guided this project from the beginning, foreseeing and finding solutions before the problems ever arose!

Ann Stafford - thank-you for your support and advice.

The IT team, especially Ben Reuter, Graham Lloyd and Andrew Lee. Thanks for the continued help with the endless technical problems.

SAC for promoting the AC banquet.

Kathy @ Student Services.

Maurice Ashton for the amazing inside cover photos.

Meree Tellidu for the advertising

Student Publications Board - Craig Vogel, Daniel Reynaud, Carolyn Rickett.

Adele Nash for putting Ed's in 'The Voice'.

Donna Pinter, Allen & Andrea Steele for your advice.

Sere Miles for last minute help.

And all the contributing photographers.
