THE ONLY PATH OF WORTH

Almost nothing lasts forever,
As life will wash away,
The paths of our tomorrow,
Before we've walked today.

But there's something that's forever,
And it's something deep inside,
Something tied to destiny,
That none of us can hide.

It is so very important,
To each one of us on earth,
Because it is the Saviour,
And the only path of worth.
- Jan Westerink

"I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." This is the biblical injunction that has been taken by the Jacaranda team, who believe that Jesus Christ is "THE WAY TO GO".

Jacaranda 1988 shows how, through a balanced lifestyle, all minds are directed toward the future glory of God and the past sacrifice of Christ.

And by the way, without Rhonda, Linda, Julie-Ann, Brian, Chris, Andrew, and Cedric you wouldn't be getting to see anything. Thanks!

Dedication

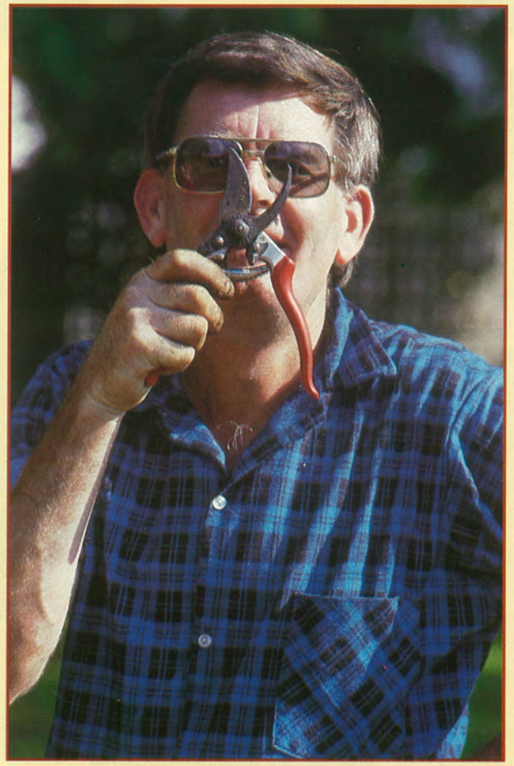

Behind the scenes...

Working selflessly...

Narelle Hick...
with inexhaustible patience and friendliness,

Mel Hodgson...
with exuberant cheerfulness and Christianity,

In Gratitude...
We dedicate this Jacaranda to you.

AUSTRALIA'S

SONGMAN

We see you still through a mist of sentiment,
jagged ranges that command respect,
projecting Arnhem Land's songs,

Songman watch the years grow,
enveloping the land we worked so hard to clear.
Bush, poised, subtly inching closer.

An old wooden fence, crippled by passing time,
groans in the wind.
A merciless frost cracks like a whip
on the unforgiving earth.
A lone, cold, old chimney stands
as a monument to the homestead.

The Songman's old voice wavers,
choked with emotion.
He's seen it all before -
a harsh, dry land, racked by drought,
drenched by rain.

You point me to whispering salt bushes,
scuttling aimlessly across barren slopes.
And cascading waterfalls, thundering into crystal pools -
As lightning dances across threatening skies.

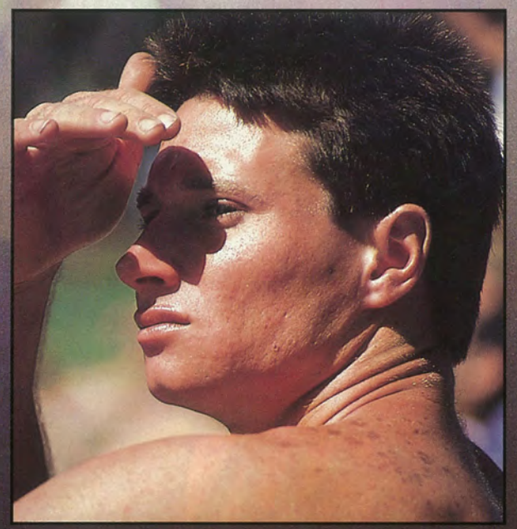

Songman's spirit. You lie in the stillness of this unrelenting land -
Where tall gums stand like ghosts,
shimmering in the night air.
And we see you still, through a mist of sentiment,
this harsh country and I.

- Darren Zeuschner

In this year of reflection, it is appropriate to ponder the influence Avondale has had upon the direction of the lives of several past students. Scattered throughout this Jacaranda are brief biographies offering a glimpse of this effect.

IN MEMORY OF...

PETER KNOPPER

1975-79 - BA in Theology at Avondale

1988 - Supervisor of the Layman's Training School in the Eastern Highlands Mission - Papua New Guinea.

A man who gave his life for his God and his fellow men. A man of commitment and enthusiasm for his missionary work. In essence, he made God's direction his direction.

Want an education? Forget the study, grab a passport,ticket,and camera and see the world as an S.M. - you'll never regret it. Living in a foreign country is the most interesting experience I've ever had. There are heaps of opportunities to share Jesus Christ and to watch friends and students accept Him as their God. Although I miss my friends, I'm glad I made the decision to come to Korea.

A 'PEAK' AT LIFE IN NEPAL

Sometimes we really feel like missionaries in an undeveloped, idol-worshipping country, however, we do live well and western facilities are available. We teach three hours in the morning, starting at 6:30am, then prepare, mark, visit, and shop for the rest of the day. Living in Nepal is an invaluable learning experience that I'll never forget.

The life of an SM is...
Busy... teaching seven hours per day.
Challenging... living, teaching conditions, and the expectations placed upon me.
Rewarding... friends, interesting culture, watching others accept God and coming closer to Him myself.
Unregrettable... Though I miss home I'm extremely glad I've had a chance to work for God in a foreign country.

-Murray Barnett.

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations...." I didn't think the Lord meant we could teach to all the nations at once but working with Adventist World Radio - Asia broadcasting the gospel to over 76 countries in 14 languages, it seemed too good an opportunity to miss. I've learnt what it means to trust the Lord for daily needs. Praise God - dreams do come true!

Principals Comment

1988 has been a significant year for Australians and for Seventh-day Adventists. As this year of many commemorations comes to an end, we all seem like travellers standing momentarily at the cross-roads, eager to ascertain our bearings, anxious to move on in the right direction.

And that is the theme of Jacaranda '88 - Directions.

The signpost at the cross-road in time points forward to the way ahead, and back to the way from which we have come. 1988 has reminded us that as travellers intent on reaching our destination we owe much to those who have blazed the trail ahead of us.

Jacaranda '88 will remind students and staff alike of a year at Avondale with many special memories and achievements. May it also encourage all true Avondalians to press onward with new zeal and vision to whatever ultimate destiny is theirs to realise.

Neville Grace, John Doherty, Austin Fletcher, Eddie Long

1988 takes the Avondale College Foundation into its second decade of enthusiastic support for Avondale College. We have accepted the challenge of raising $600,000 over the next five years, for the new Industrial Arts Building and the establishment of a Student Bursary Scheme Fund.

As Avondale Foundation members join with all who love and believe in Avondale College, a great work will be done to ensure the continuing strength of the College and its contribution to the life of the church.

-Pr Austin Fletcher - Executive Director

AVONDALE COLLEGE FOUNDATION

Student Organizations...

ASFA (Avondale Student Faculty Association) plays a major part in facilitating student development in the areas of creativity, leadership skills, organizational ability, decision making, and self-government. The Association forms the core of student leadership at College, providing and organising activities dealing in the spiritual, recreational, political and economical realms of college life. The essence of ASFA is to encourage youth to take an active role in organisation and service.

Avondale is what you make it - to make it a success you must get involved. The Student Activities Committee (SAC) is dedicated to encouraging involvement in fun; resulting in friendship. Imagine Avondale without beach nights, sports nights, talent nights, colour days, back-to-school days, olympic days, etc. etc. etc. Thanks to the SAC team for helping Avondale celebrate '88.

The aim of Campus Ministries this year has been to ensure that every student has ample opportunity to meet Jesus Christ. It is to this end that our programme and our team have been committed.

The Voice is a publication produced by ASFA. The magazine attempts to draw upon student and staff contribution to provide an overview of college life and world issues. It is hoped that students will continue to perceive this publication as 'their voice' that should be articulated and heard.

production team

Ranald (Urq) - The "Editor", or boss. The responsible man with the task of harnessing the potential of each person, ensuring co-operative team-work, essentially organizing and organizing and organizing and organizing.

Andrew (Sid) - Sales Manager. A unique parody of zest, zeal, enthusiasm and Christian concern. It can be truthfully said that without Andrew it just wouldn't have been the same.

Rhonda - Lay-out Editor. The creative designer building the framework of each individual page.
Linda - Layout assistant. She is always ready with effervescent willingness and useful advice.
They were the only ones who stayed back working on Saturday night and had to wait hours for their chocolates while the rest went out.

Cedric - Faculty Adviser. A person who possesses the greatest amount of tolerance and patience for those who are ridiculous. Thanks for doing more than expected and for being friendly, caring and energetic.

Julie-Ann - Literary Editor. Cookie has been responsible for the "words" of Jac '88. Stacks of reading, typing, correcting, mixed with a bright personality and a positive attitude.

Chris - the "man with the camera". He is also the provider of "the one and only, black and white, 2 X 3 cm, flattering photo of you in the Jac".
Brian (Crue') - Assistant Photographer and performer of weird and wonderful tricks and stunts in the name of photography.

To Graduate: (verb) a process which takes many hours of concerted effort, a fair share of luck, and careful expenditure of effort. Something achieved in the time of one to four years by which one is equipped for the rest of life. The finale, the rallying point of a college career glittering with friends, good times and remembrances. The synthesis of a kaleidoscope of reflections, the final stroke in a complete cycle.
Synonyms: relief, gratitude, freedom.
