A Word From the Principal

Take a moment for reflection. Avondale College is multi-facetted; made up of place, programs and people. Yet it transcends its parts. It is alive, and is an exciting place where young adults, along with those who are young at heart, expand their minds, test their ideas and develop a vision of the contribution they will make to the world.

Each year assumes its own personality and develops its own distinctive character. But, paradoxically, each College year is the same. The College is always a place where we can meet our Saviour and Master, where decisions are made and careers plotted.

True education touches all aspects of our lives. It is not confined to the classroom. It continues in friendship, in recreation and in work. Ultimately, it is perfected in worship. Education continues every moment. Those moments are the essence of Avondale.

capturing the spirit of avondale

moments '91

moment . . . a gift of time.

Life consists of a collection of moments ranging from the hilarious to the solemn, the ecstatic to the bittersweet. Each weaves a texture and colour into the unique fabric of our lives.

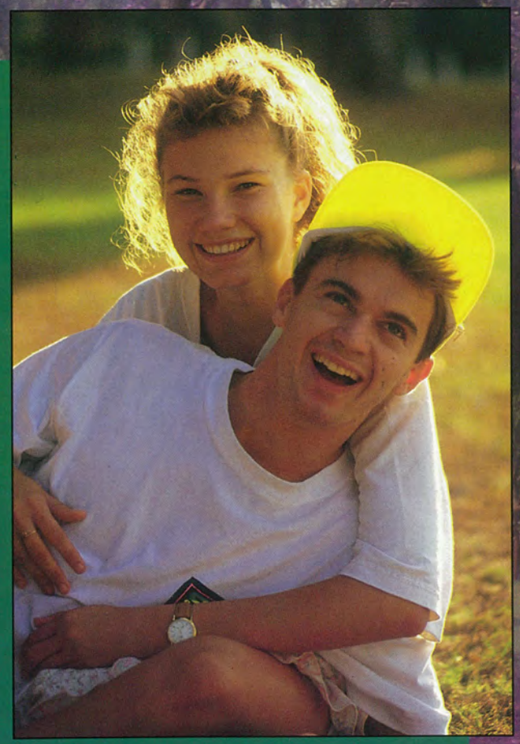

Few, if any of us, remember everything we experience. Instead, we define where we have been, who we are and where we are going through the reminiscence of our most significant and special moments.

What is true for individuals is also true for the life of the Avondale community. Throughout this year we have collectively experienced times of excitement, stress, deep sadness, light-heartedness and fulfillment.

The Jacaranda team have endeavoured to make a statement about the multi-dimensional nature of life, somthing of relevance to all readers. We have captured what we believe to be the essence of life using Avondale as a microcosm.

savour with us the significant moments of 1991.

Hot, sticky weather . . . jolting pot-holed roads . . . the healthy aroma of Weet-Bix . . . "scent" of the dairy . . . infuriatingly tenacious flies . . . the sunset boulevard . . . retirees' evening stroll . . . joggers pounding the path in sweaty T- shirts . . . a kaleidoscope of architectural styles . . . crisp, starry night skies . . .

Familiar faces: Dr Young . . . Brian Houliston . . . Dr Clapham. . . New faces: Dr Steve Thompson . . . Glenda Parker . . . new students each semester . . .

A symphony of faces creating a composition with rhythm . . . tension . . . resolution . . . a statement. Each bringing their individuality to the part they play in the continuing music of Avondale.

moments

In the tiny moments of life, light is suddenly shed on our whole existence : Epiphany.

James Joyce

Worship is the agenda God has brought to this church in the nineties. True worship goes beyond mere forms. It is a response of our total being, body, mind, will and emotions, to the presence of God as He comes to meet us and serve our needs.

reflective moment

a tribute to Peter Rayner 1.7.69 - 23.3.91

A great lover of life

Intelligent, handsome, witty,
sometimes zany;
Accomplished artist, athlete,
musician;
Articulate, accepting,
empathetic;
A good son, brother, friend.

He made none of these things
his boast
but walked humbly with his God.

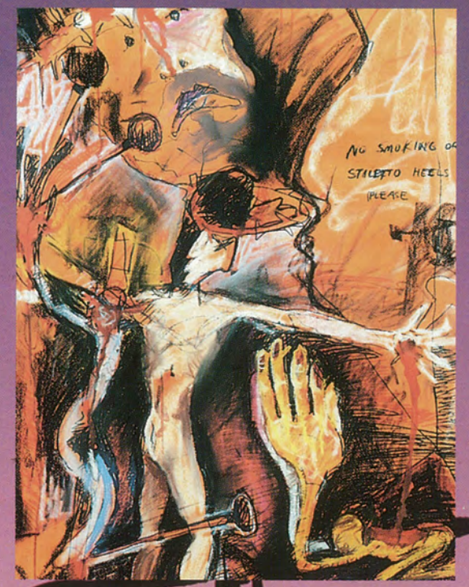

Sadly missed.

Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live." Jn 11:25

Over the triple doorway of the Cathedral of Milan there are three inscriptions spanning the splendid arches. Over one is carved a beautiful wreath of roses, and underneath is the legend:

"All that pleases is but for a moment."

Over the other is sculptured a cross, and these are the words beneath:

"All that troubles is but for a moment."

But underneath the great central entrance in the main aisle is the inscription,

"That only is important which is eternal."

Priests prior to their War March.

I searched through the archives of my mind -
And found I have but lived
A momentary phase
In a journey so long.

Avondale College

Avondale College has a growing reputation for producing quality graduates. This is no accident. It is the result of careful planning, a well qualified faculty, and an abundance of enthusiastic and gifted students.

So, what would you expect to happen when so many intelligent and dedicated people get together on the one campus? It's a creatively charged experience! This makes Avondale College a most attractive learning environment for the Christian tertiary student.

we thank

Dr Arthur Patrick,
the bard of Avondale.

For many years of
dedicated service,
showing a love for education and the people partaking of it.

All those who have left our ranks. We appreciate all the hours and energies you have donated beyond calling, and wish you well; Cal Durrant, Keith Hughes, Owen Hughes, Rod Krause, Peter Kuch, Barry Warmsley . . .

we will miss

John Cox, and look forward to your soon return.

we welcome

Laurie Draper, Trafford Fischer, Glenda Parker, Brad Strahn, Steve Thompson . . .

the jac team

Working on the Jac team is one of the most challenging things possible. It takes dedication, and commitment, is often frightening but also brings the opportunity for intense creativity and fulfillment. Exhausting and exciting, you need a vision. Much depends on who you're working with, and this year's team has been great.

Thank you to the many people who have contributed to this years effort, compiling lists, printing order forms, lending computers and printers, and many other little things that make a big difference.

CONGRATULATIONS 1991 GRADUATES

We have been proud to build the new Ladies Residence at Avondale College

Since the Sanitarium company was founded we have always endeavoured to occupy a position of leadership. Today, Sanitarium is one of the biggest food manufacturing companies in Australia and New Zealand with a stable of top-selling brands, including Weet-Bix and So Good.

Sanitarium – synonymous with leadership.

We have also expanded our marketing activities overseas with great success and our products are becoming established in the United States, Europe, Asia and the Pacific Islands.

To maintain our leadership stance we have the benefit of certain principles. The principle upon which our company was built and has thrived is simple: that food should not only taste good, it should be good for you.

This principle has helped to make us leaders in food production and marketing. Similarly, we derive moral leadership from the Christian principles that guide us in our daily lives.

May they continue to guide and inspire us at Sanitarium into the next century.

THEY CHOSE DENOMINATIONAL SERVICE

Karen Chilcott graduated with a Bachelor of Education degree in 1990, and now teaches at Sydney Adventist High School. Karen says...

"The difference in teaching in our schools comes not so much in the standard of education, but in the quality of relationships. As a Christian teacher, my first and ultimate aim is to help the students see Jesus a little clearer. Adventist Education puts no limitation on the opportunities for this to happen. As a result, my work is not just another job; it's where God wants me to be!"

Paul Geelan graduated from the Bachelor of Business course in 1990. He is now Assistant Accountant for ADRA, Adventist Alpine Village and properties in the South Pacific Division, and is studying to be a Certified Practicing Accountant.

"Being an accountant in the church system is not all about number crunching and making money, but rather it is working with a people orientated team that has a common faith and goal; and this makes the work satisfying and fulfilling."

Campbell Wilson graduated from the Bachelor of Business course in 1990. He is now an Assistant Accountant for Section II of the South Pacific Division. Campbell says...

"Denominational employment provides the opportunity of sharing in a happy and cohesive working environment. But more than that, the Church is a service industry that focuses on people, and that makes for many rewarding experiences. I'm sure you would find denominational employmentjust as challenging as I do."

100613

Lorraine Read graduated from the Secretarial course in 1990. She is now an Assessing Clerk for ACA Medical Fund, based at the South Pacific Division. Lorraine says...

"Working for the Church has proved to be a wonderful experience for me. I enjoy my work because it provides me with a pleasant work place and the satisfaction of knowing that this is where God wants me to be. My decision to work for the Church has been a worthwhile one, and I would encourage you to be ready to accept the challenge if you hear God's call."
