YEAR OF THE CHURCH '86

PROLOGUE

You are holding in your hands a message in word and picture from Avondale students, 1986.

Under the catchy theme, "We're looking out for you", JACARANDA '86 presents a cameo of contemporary life at Avondale in all its varied aspects. It seeks to portray the relevance of the Christian gospel to young people in the mid-80's, and how that gospel can be lived and shared in a college community.

Avondale is and always will be a Christian college, distinct from educational institutions which have a differing philosophy. Life on the Avondale campus is full, varied, meaningful, and thoroughly enjoyable. Through these pages today's students want to share a glimpse of the life with students of tomorrow. "We're looking out for you" correctly catches the true spirit of Avondale College and its students.

SERVICE

Being a student missionary in America tends to bring laughter from some people I talk to, but for me I have found it to be an extreme reality. A need exists here in San Diego and all over the world for the youth of today. Mission work for me involves trips to Mexico building churches, baptismal classes, Sabbath School lessons, pool parties, baseball games, and trips to the Grand Canyon where sharing and social interaction are important aspects in a balanced Christian experience. My time here has required adjustments, but for me it will remain an experience to be loved, cherished, and never regretted.

Joanne, Brenda, Linton, Charlie (USA)

Travelling to America with three fellow Aussies was great until we went our separate ways - then home and familiarities seemed so far away! But I've really grown to love kids and church family here. God has always been there in both good and bad times and has helped to make this experience so invaluable. Given the chance I'd definitely venture out again!

Brenda Lambert
Rochester, Minnesota, USA

What am I doing here anyway? I'm supposed to be a Pathfinder Director. An extract from my diary sums it all up: January 24 "... God help me!" And He has. Not in monumental, earth-shattering ways, but in quiet understanding. And who knows what changes in direction my life will now take? Only God knows, but I can't wait to find out.

Linton Graffin
St. Paul, Minnesota, USA

Nerolie Smith and Alison Miller (KOREA)

"Please speak English!"..."I don't understand!"..."Hungook Mal Mooroomnida" (Korean language, I don't know)... communication - God help! Bible meetings, sermons, Sabbath School, Church, Bible class, inquiring students - God help! A service to God, a service to the Korean people, a service to myself. God help. Through it all God has been helping, hearing my prayers, giving me strength, guiding, instructing, teaching, improving. I owe Him my life and I'm thankful He could use me. It's been a year I'll never forget or regret.

Alison Miller

Now I'm on my way back home,
To what I left behind,
It's a funny thing, but now I want to stay,
For this place is like a home,
So now I want to say how much my year away has meant,
It will always be a part of me I will treasure till the end.

And Lord You've led me all the way in my ups and downs,
You've shown me that You care through Your love everywhere,
For You have given me a memory that will always be a part of me,
So I thank You Lord for always being there.

Robyn Bailey

LEARNING

"It is the work of true education to develop this power (to think and do), to train the youth to be thinkers, and not mere reflectors of other men's thought."

With a balanced lifestyle as the focus of our philosophy, learning takes on a broader outlook. The aim is to develop men and women with a deeper and more encompassing vision, who will be thoughtful, sharing Christians prepared to meet the future with enthusiasm and security.

Surfing to me is a soul soother, and the beach a great place to share with friends or be alone with your thoughts. I can think of nothing better than praising Jesus for the beautiful sunrise or sunset as I bob quietly up and down on the ocean swells. Nature is a great way to study God, and surfing, like bushwalking, is an excellent way to do in-depth research into the matter. Ta, Jesus, for the opportunity.

PEOPLE

"When friendships are real, they are not glass threads or frost work, but the solidest things we can know."

— Ralph Waldo Emerson

AVONDALE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

ASFA (L to R): Suzanne Jones (Councillor), Julie Ullrich (Councillor), Stephen Davies (Secretary/Treasurer), Peter Ritchie (Councillor), Jeff Rout (Outdoor Married Representative), Tony Kent (ASFA President), Colin Louwen (Councillor), David Wood (Public Relations), Victor Lee (Campus Ministries), Mr. E. McDonald (Faculty Advisor), Colleen Penfold (SAC), Janette Powell (Secretary).

Avondale College students care about making college a better place to study, worship, and live, all in a Christian atmosphere. Hence, ASFA has been guided this year by its motto "Creating Tomorrow".

We have been working towards the same goals as the administration through the various divisions of ASFA: Campus Ministries, Student Activities Committee, Public Relations, and the student newspaper "Avenues". Each has worked in close cooperation to provide for the many aspects of campus life.

With the support of the college administration we are able to see our ideals, plans, and thoughts implemented, thus creating a better tomorrow for Avondale.

— Tony Kent
ASFA President

SAC (L to R): Andrew Lawson, Kym Perrett, Colleen Penfold, Brendyn Hancock, Rozie Kadareanu, Debbie Hilton, Derek Morgan.

The Student Activities Committee aims to get both staff and students involved in the social and recreational aspects of college. Valentine's Day, Black and White Day, Clothes Cram, Spots and Stripes Day, Beach Nite, Talent Night, Sports Night, and Bush Nite . . . Remember?

They say that college is what you make it, and we hope that 1986 was a memorable time for all those who got involved, had fun and made new friendships.

— Colleen Penfold
SAC Leader

FACULTY ASSOCIATION

Avondale College is OUR college. Its existence depends upon people like us coming within its guiding framework. Avondale offers advanced education with a unique Christian perspective, and as students we want to encourage others to share in this experience.

Dwane Hedges
SMP Director

The two groups pictured above and below frittered much of 1986 away by shamelessly disrupting college life with sketches, written articles, cartoons, parties, advertisements, JAC promotions and the college newspaper. All of us would like to thank ASFA for the support we received. I also wish to extend undying gratitude toward the members of each crew for their spirited performances. Without their varied skills nothing at all would have been possible.

David Wood - ASFA/JAC Public Relations
- "Avenues" editor

With our membership now totalling over 1000 members and our five businesses returning increased profits, the Avondale College Foundation has firmly established itself as the most exciting and successful lay venture being run within the South Pacific Division. The College has now benefited by $1.75 million worth of assets which has been made possible through the generous giving and dedicated involvement of so many. The Foundation is looking forward with optimism to the future.

Pr. Laurie McMurtry

ACF Youth is an exciting venture being undertaken by the students at Avondale. The idea is to get students involved as members of the Foundation and small projects which directly relate to the students' needs are then undertaken each year. Our aim is to have 100 Youth members at College and it looks highly likely that we will reach our target this year. With a limited population at College we feel that this is an excellent achievement.

Stephen Davies

AVONDALE COLLEGE FOUNDATION

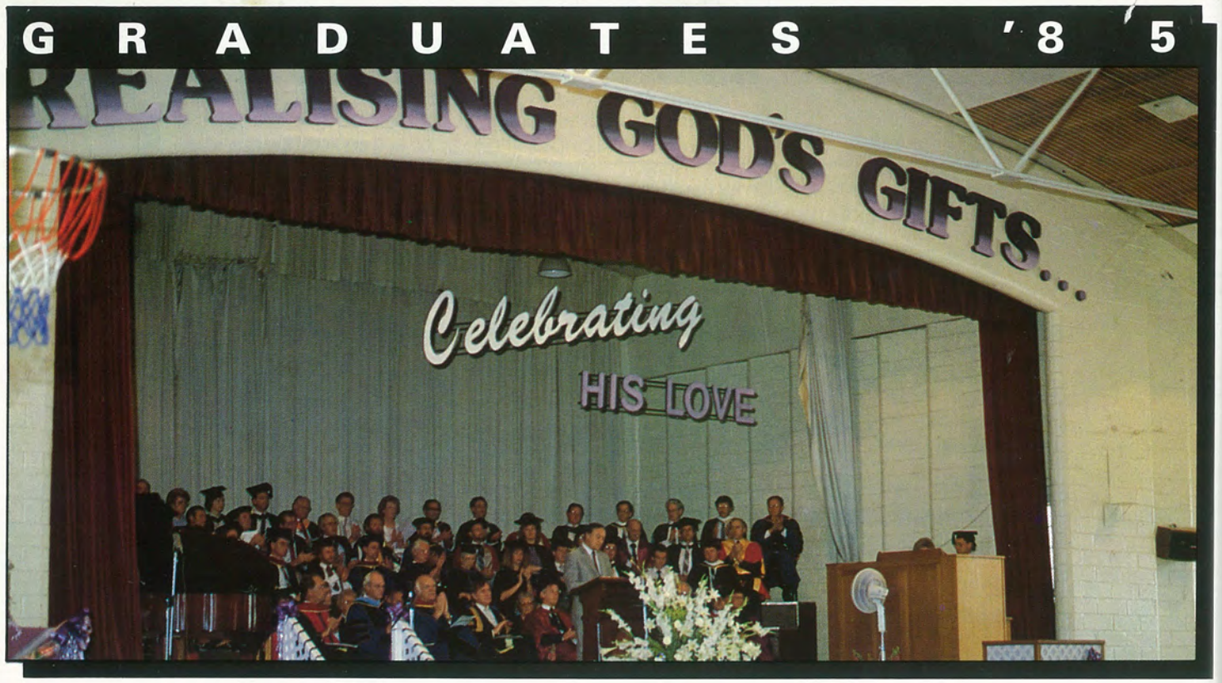

THE CHURCH

When Solomon built the temple, he acquired the best tradesmen, and built a functional temple in accordance with God's plan to meet the needs of the people. So too, we have a church that meets our long over-due needs. Functional, spiritual, awe-inspiring, approachable; it truly is a house of God. It is a structure that has been specially designed to create an atmosphere to enhance our communion with our Maker, Friend and Redeemer.

On behalf of students and community worshippers, I wish to thank ACF and all those who have contributed to creating a central place of worship for Avondale College.

— Colin Louwen

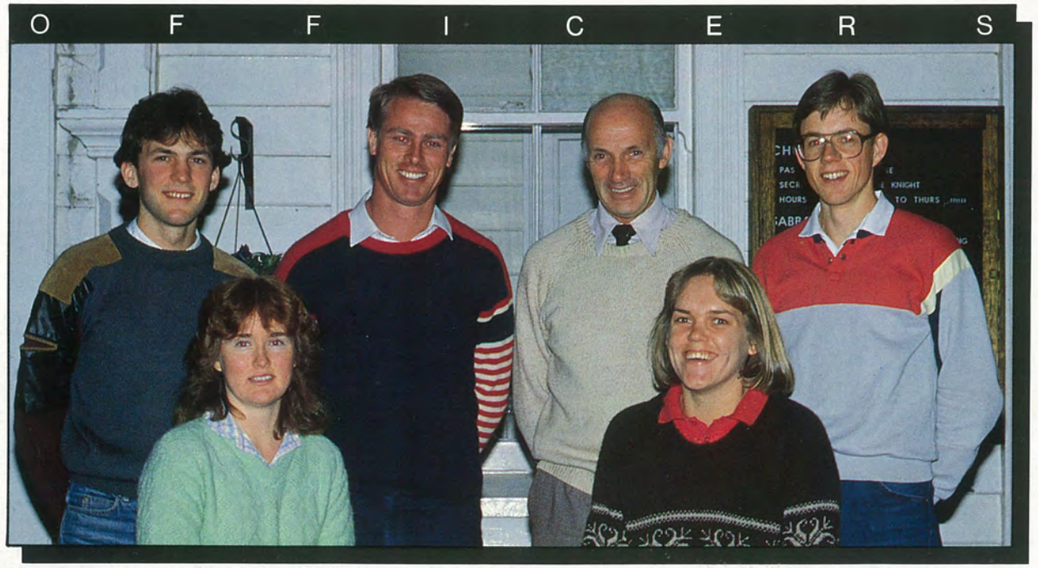

An Ideal for Graduates. . .

Restrained within a sense of destiny,
There is no noble boast
Of scent and flowers
But a humble bulb of patient hope
Waiting to refresh
The stasis of winter gloom;

A seed whose feeble newness
Gives way through strength
To gently conquer and renew
Not from sameness and servitude
But from "otherness" and grace.

— Edwin Creely

OFFICERS

EPILOGUE

Jacaranda 1986 was an opportunity for us to promote an exciting new look at Avondale College. Through our theme, "We're looking out for you", we sought to capture the people, the feeling and the faith of our campus.

It has been our aim to present Jesus Christ to our readers in a way that reflects youthful vigor and enthusiasm.

Jacaranda 1986 would not have been possible without the talents, inspiration and effort of the production team. A very special thankyou to Tania, John Mac., Peter and Cal.

I hope you've enjoyed your look at 1986 through the eyes of Jacaranda and as a result come to share a little of our vision.

— John Ruthven
