

JACARANDA '69

You have made us aware of the unlimited space of the universe and given us a glimpse of eternity.
You have prompted us to probe the mysteries of the atom to find God's love expressed in the minute.
For profound thoughts expressed in simplicity:
encounter with Christ right here
today . . .
For Christianity lived
For your friendship
We thank you.

We dedicate the 1969 Jacaranda to Eric A. Magnusson.

FOREWORD

"The path of the righteous is like the light of dawn."

For many that path goes through Avondale.

Jacaranda invites you to walk with the students along that busy thoroughfare that is college. Many people throng these streets, people who from the maze of life have heard the simple call, "Follow Me," and are now equipping themselves with special travelling skills for the paths that come after.

Welcome to Avondale . . .

The training ground with wide horizons—
the need of the world.

Avondale—the busy intersection where separate roads converge and then march on . . .

From country and city, the typing pool and the tool shed, from country schools and universities—God calls people to college at different age levels and from a multiplicity of places.

THE CALL

George Masters—Taxi Driver, Perth.

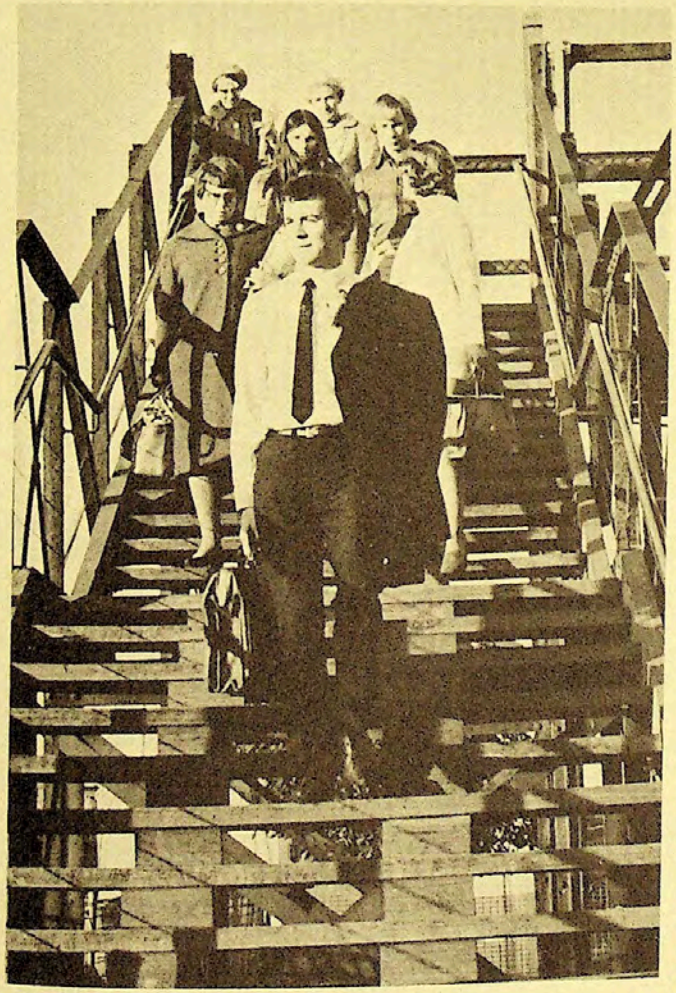

Yvonne Ogg—Secretary, Bathurst.

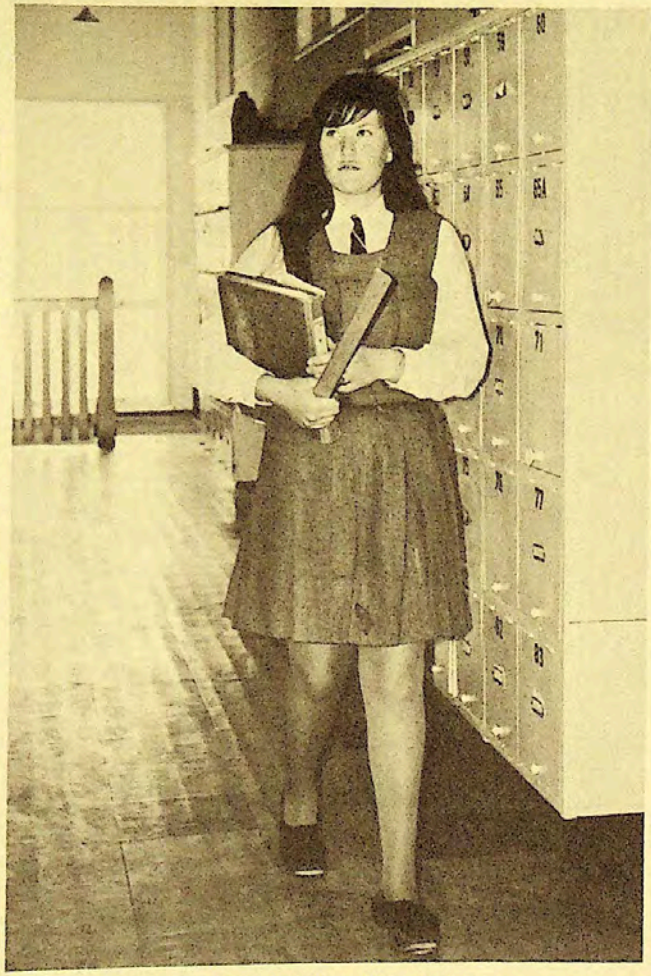

Lyle Drury—Farmhand, Coopernook.

Avondale—the busy intersection where separate roads converge and then march on . . .

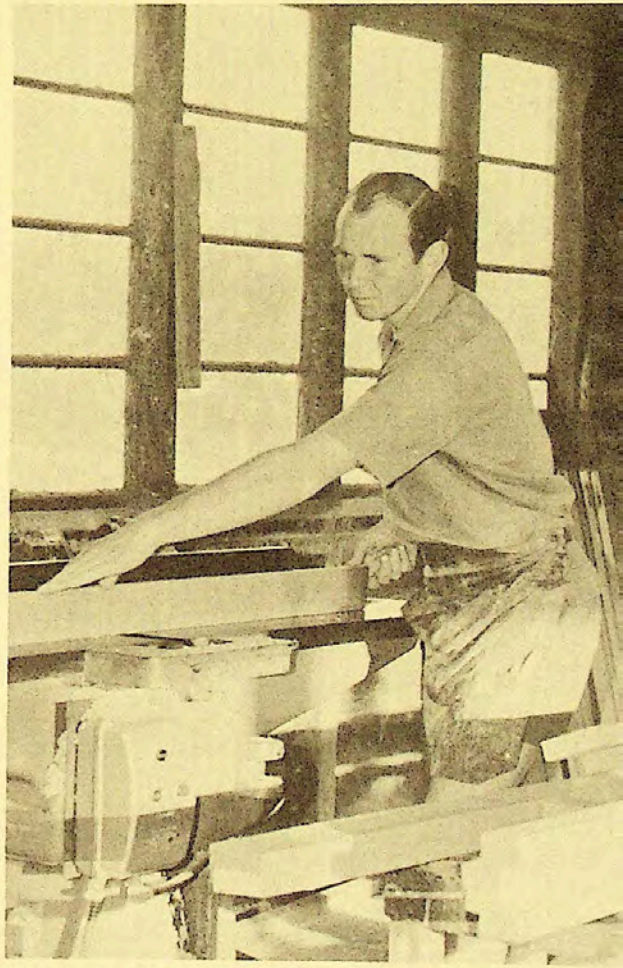

From country and city, the typing pool and the tool shed, from country schools and universities—God calls people to college at different age levels and from a multiplicity of places.

Paul Cavanagh—Student from Otago University.

Delys Chapman—High School Student, New Guinea.

John Stiles—Joiner, Masterton, N.Z.

STUDENTS ARRIVE: INDOOR

Bridging the old and the new. Signing for the key to a new room
new friendships education
a way of life . . .

Below: Settling in . . .

OUTDOOR

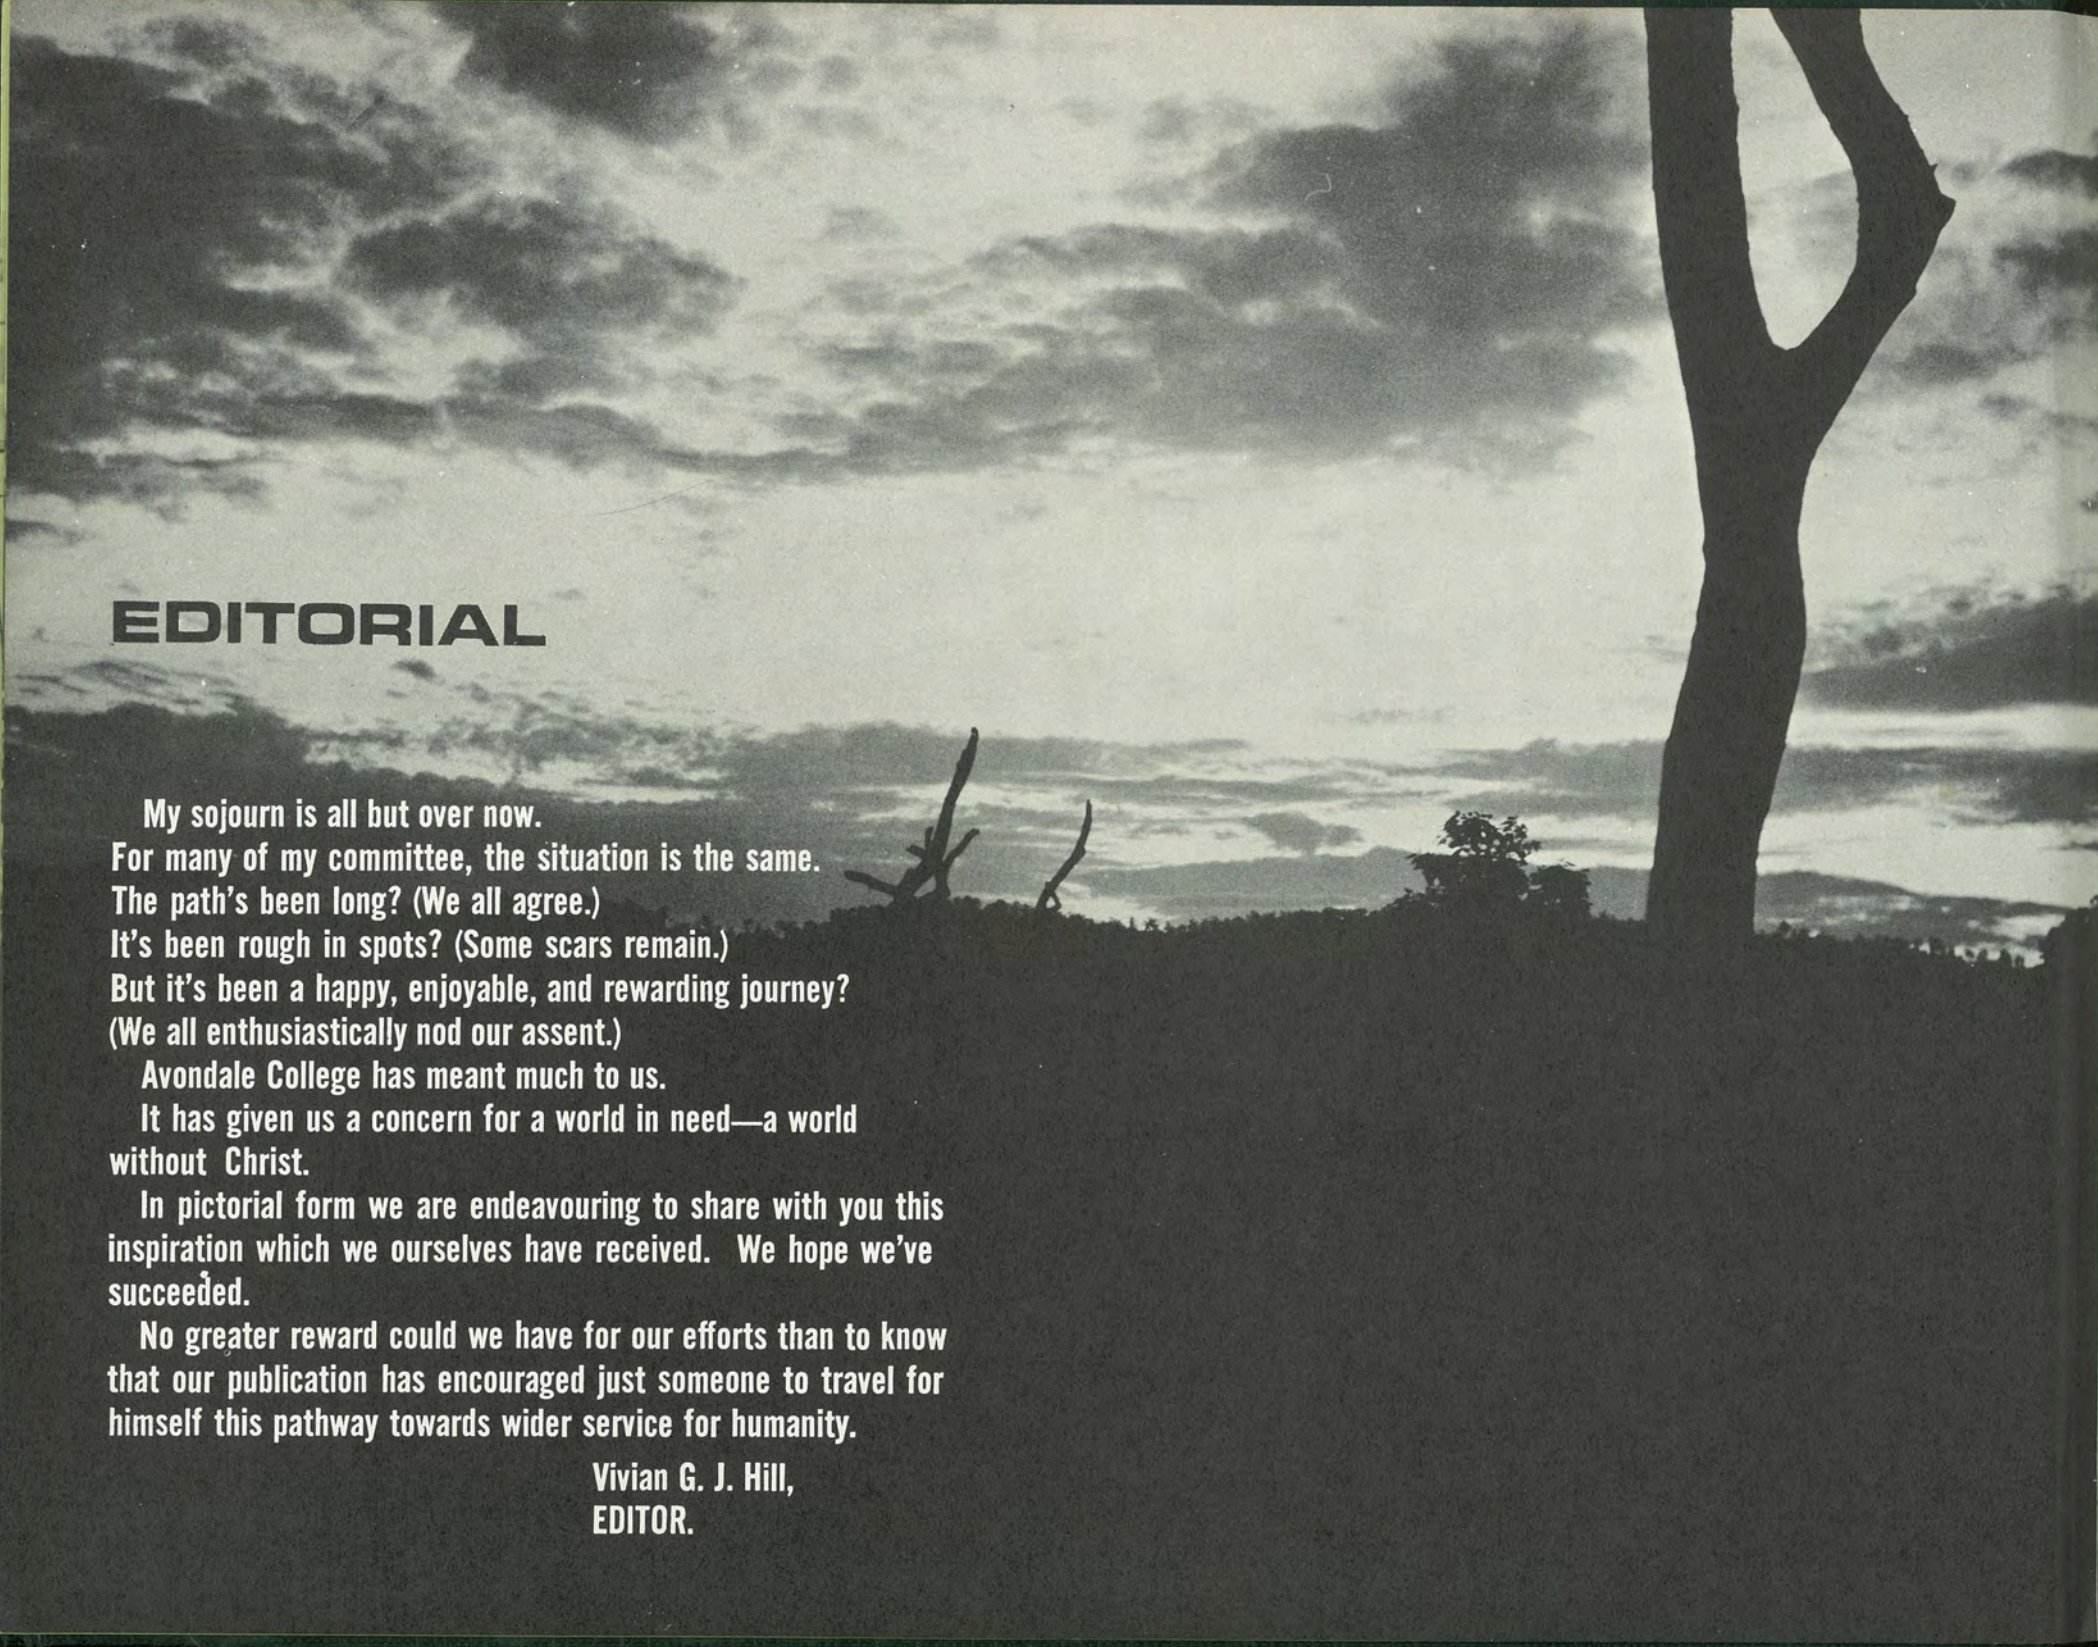

"Where are we going to put all this, Dad?"

The dignity of man!

Hours of contemplation, long discussions and nightmares of the poor-house—brave and dedicated, the married student arrives on the campus.

EDITORIAL

My sojourn is all but over now.
For many of my committee, the situation is the same.
The path's been long? (We all agree.)
It's been rough in spots? (Some scars remain.)
But it's been a happy, enjoyable, and rewarding journey?
(We all enthusiastically nod our assent.)

Avondale College has meant much to us.

It has given us a concern for a world in need—a world without Christ.

In pictorial form we are endeavouring to share with you this inspiration which we ourselves have received. We hope we've succeeded.

No greater reward could we have for our efforts than to know that our publication has encouraged just someone to travel for himself this pathway towards wider service for humanity.

Vivian G. J. Hill,
EDITOR.

THE SABBATH OPENS

"But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength;
they shall mount up with wings
as eagles;
they shall run,
and not be weary;
and they shall walk,
and not faint."

Friday evening
vesper bells . . .
an added sense of the nearness of God and quietness within.

A working day demands a hearty breakfast.

SUNDAY MORNING

Sunday morning . . .
the campus puts on working clothes polishing mowing stacking fixing . . .
the dignity of labour.

Eleanor M. Hawke—Dean of Women.

Donald E. Bain, B.A., M.P.S., Ph.C.—Dean of Men.

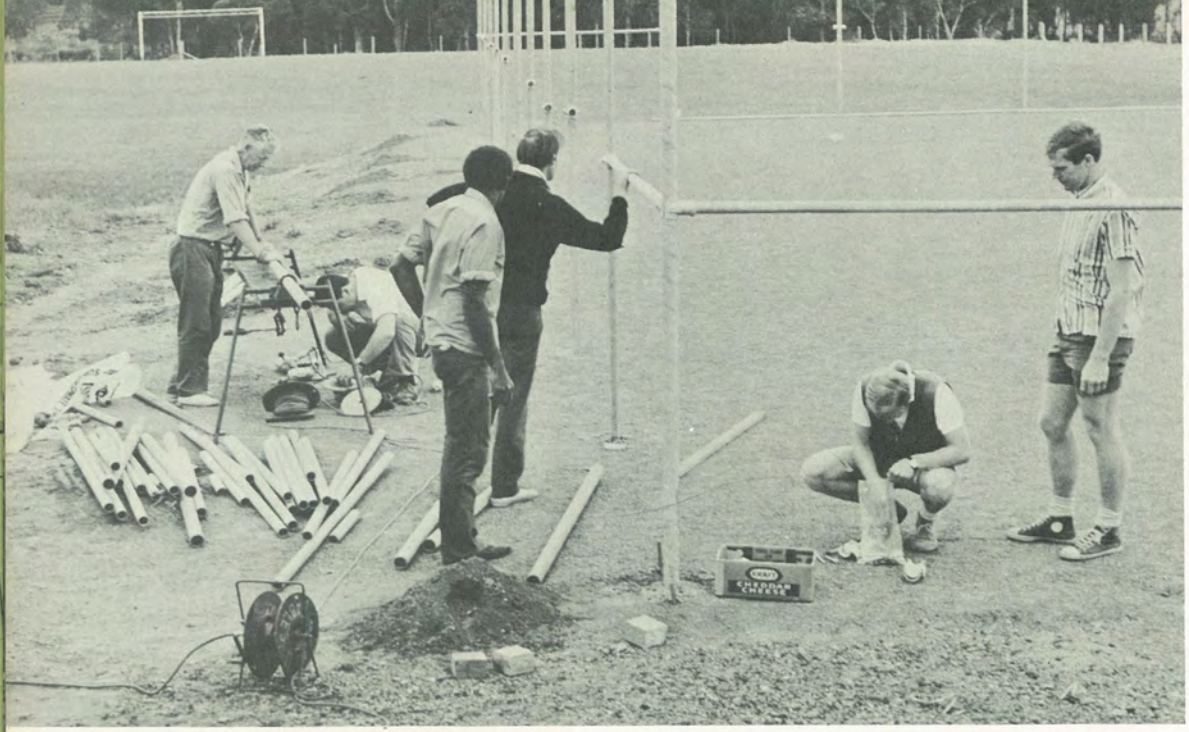

Janette—Chairwoman of the White Building.

Smudge and Smear disappear with "Instant Mike."

Hard labour builds new tennis courts.

A little Rotorua?

Mrs. Blum and broom.

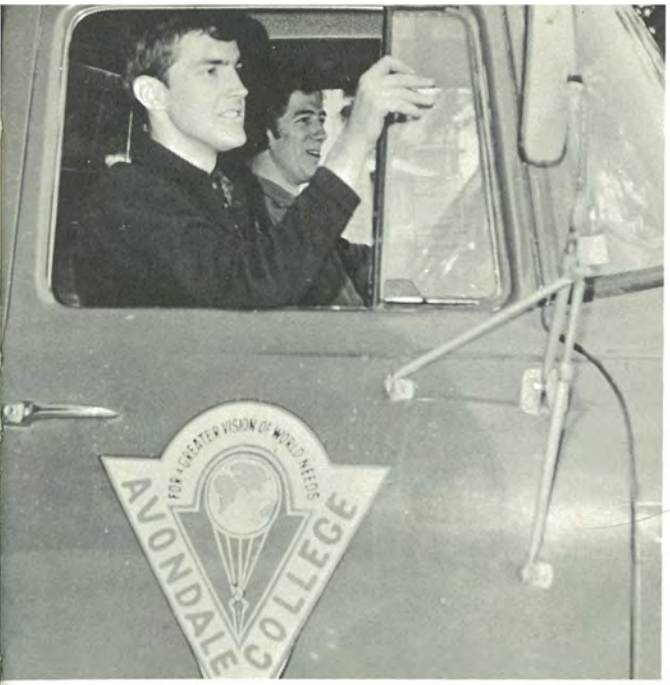

MAINTENANCE

In the dormitory on the campus
if you want a squeaky door silenced
a leaky bathroom fixed or outdoor steam baths eliminated call the Maintenance Department.

No—steam-pipe repairs.

Doug and Clive—experienced garbologists.

Constructing cafeteria rock garden.

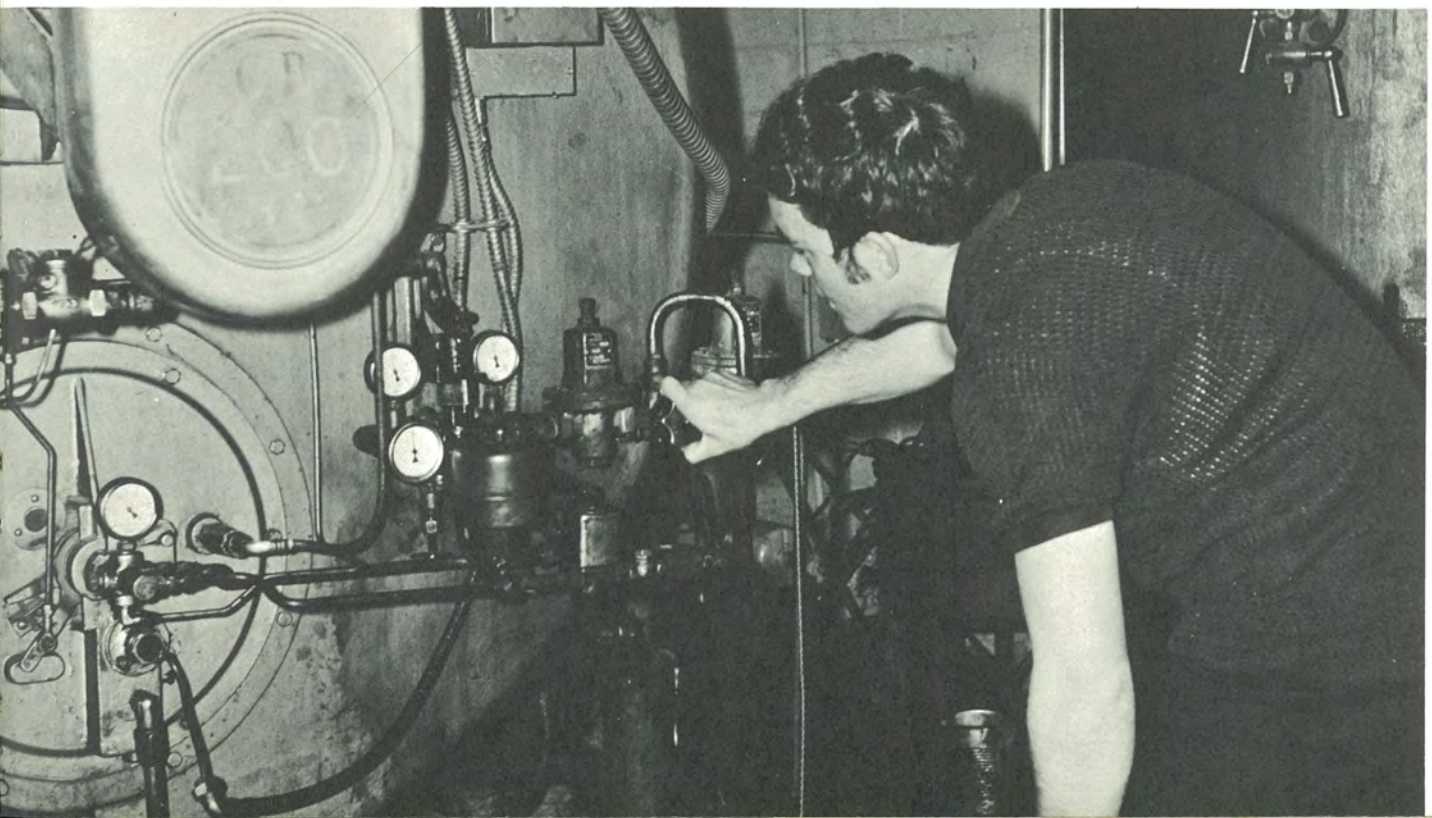

William J. Underwood—
College Wood Products Director.

Kevin Thomson John Vosper Pastor E. Martin Doug Weare

Bill Binns/Arthur Rayfield/Tony Howse

Barry on boiler—hot water for all.

Above: Mrs. Rigby—Laundry Supervisor.
Below: We're ironing flat out.

LAUNDRY

Drowned in laundry bags and missing names. . . .
Hours of standing with bent back over a hot iron. . . .
The price of clean sheets and ironed shirts.

SOCIAL

Separate entities
no longer alone.
The study of God's Word brings people closer to one another and to God.

College is the place for making friends that last—friends with a common bond of Christian love—friends with a common aim of service.
Companions of the road. . . .

Herb and Teddy—just chatting!

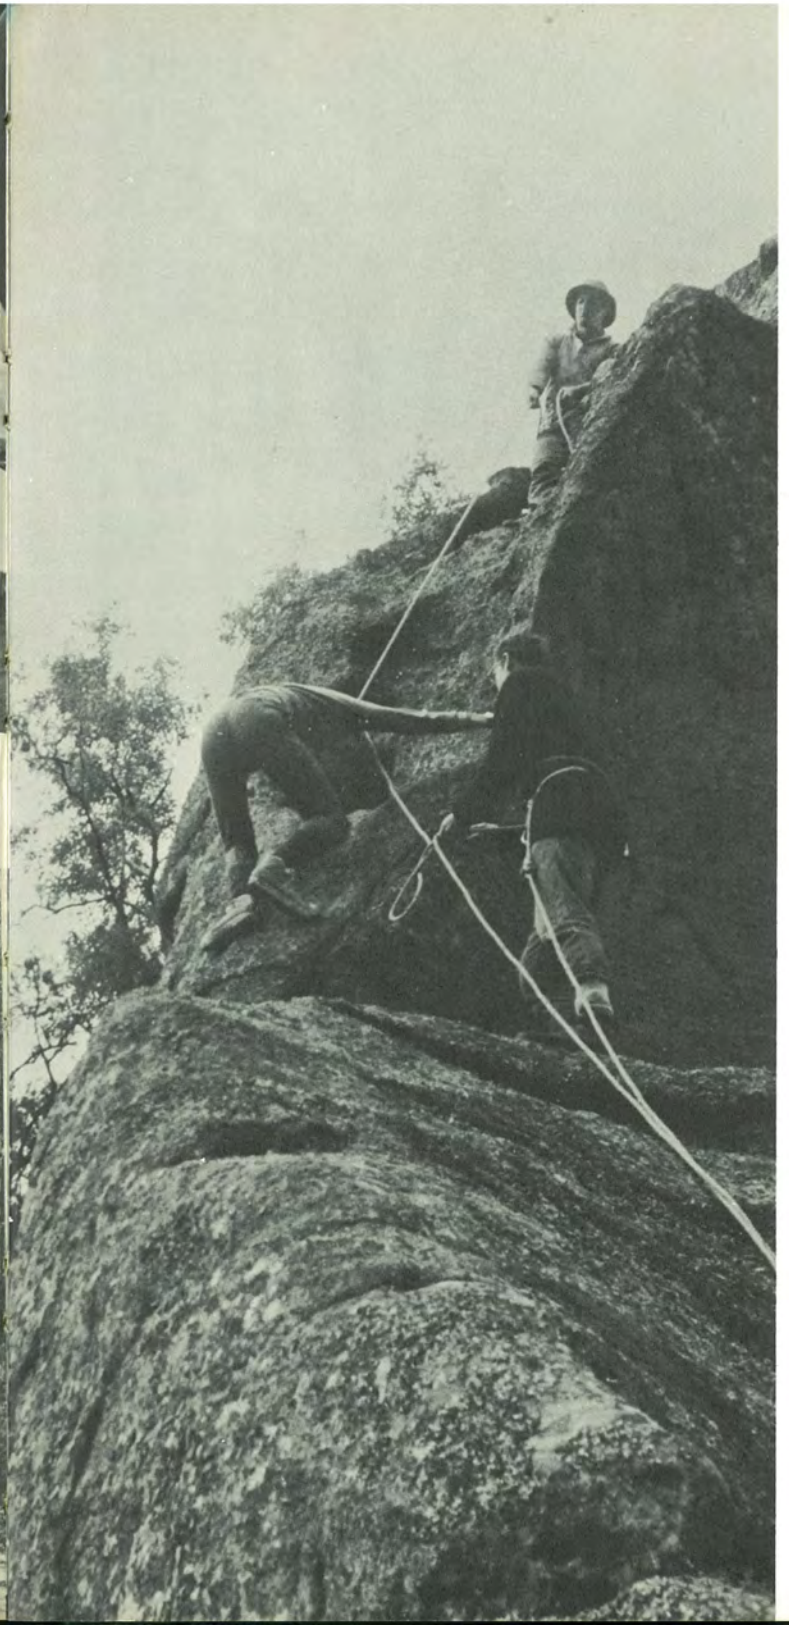

HIKING

The grandeur of tall trees,
the lilting beauty of the hills, companionship around the campfire, and rolls for lunch—
the college hike is popular despite aching limbs and sore feet.

Above: Self-serve.
Below: Turn for home.

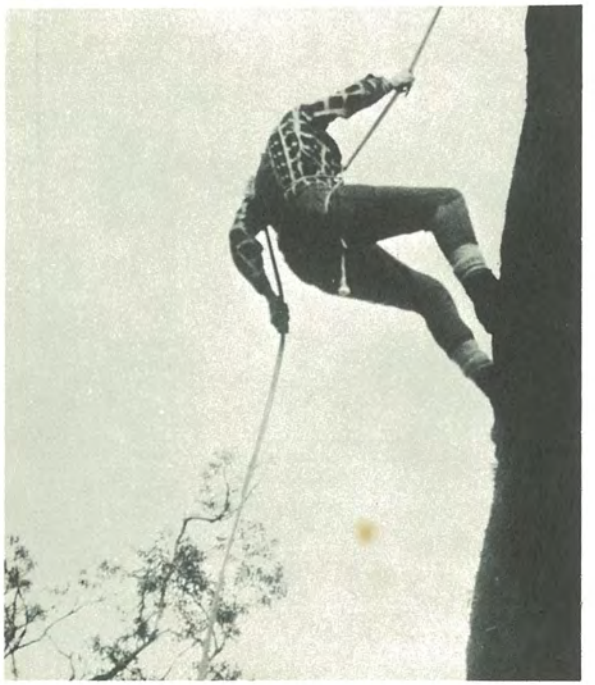

CAMPING

From mental push-ups to physical re-creation, a week-end in the bush provides that "balanced" education.

Jim Shanks—piloting pancakes.

A challenge in the nearby Wattagan Ranges.

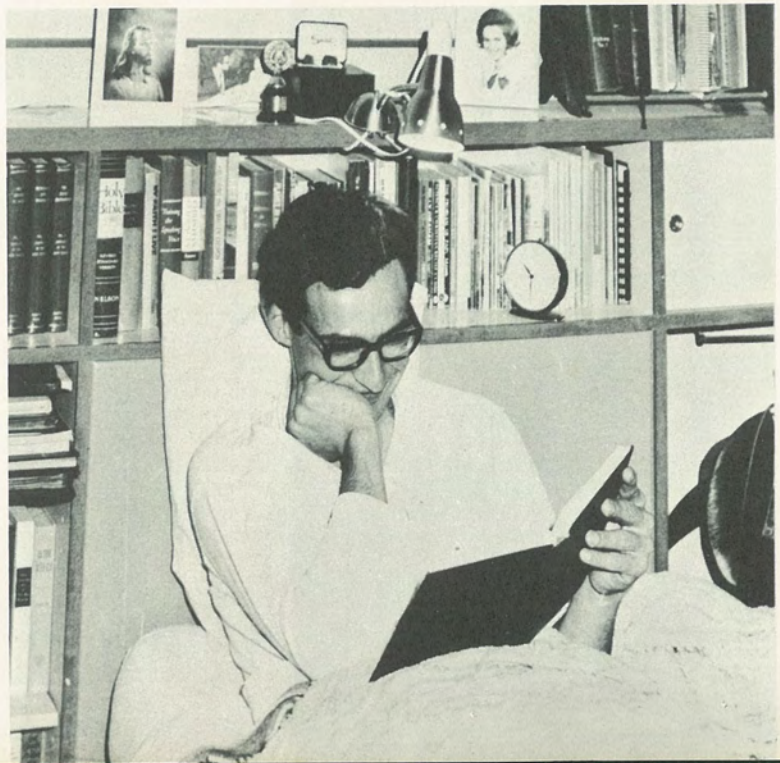

BANQUETS

In recognition of sore feet doors and more doors canvassing and deliveries . . .
The Colporteur Banquet.

Left: Publishing Department leaders join students for banquet.
Below: The aftermath—Herb in bed.

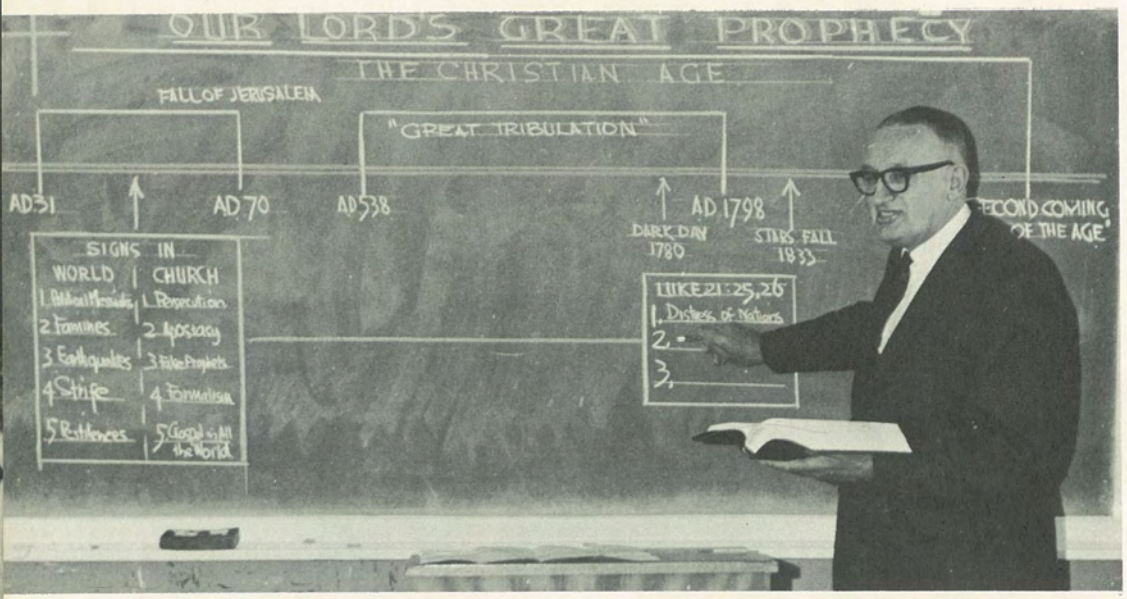

MONDAY

To know Him personally intimately.
To love Him completely humbly.
To show Him clearly joyfully.
For this purpose
the ministerial student comes to Avondale.

Expounding the way of life.

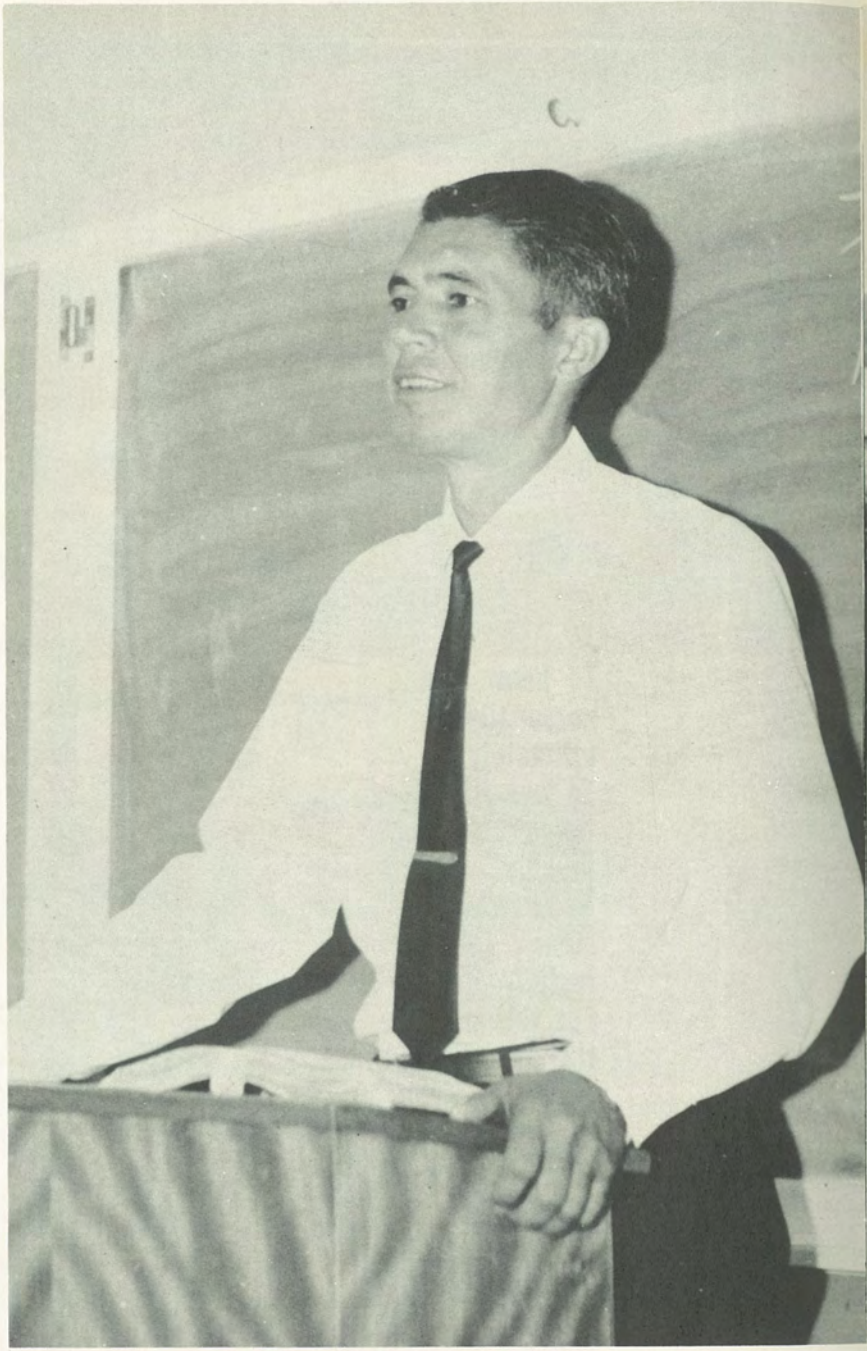

Alfred S. Jorgensen, B.A.—"For me, life means Christ."
—Phil. 1: 21.

C. Raymond Stanley—"In Christ man may appear sinless—let's go tell everybody."

Leonard P. Tolhurst, L.Th., M.A.—
"Look on the surface for jelly fish
But go to the depths for pearls."

Desmond Ford, M.A., Ph.D., Chairman, Department of Theology—"A true hierarchy of values can save any life from shipwreck."

Biblical Theology with Dr. Ford.

For the ministerial student the road through college is littered with discarded copies of forty-page essays and unreadable Greek notes. Sagging spirits are lifted in outdoor classes where the wide horizons are a constant reminder that we are just passing through—the need is the world.

Pastor Stanley—preaching Christ at Ashfield.

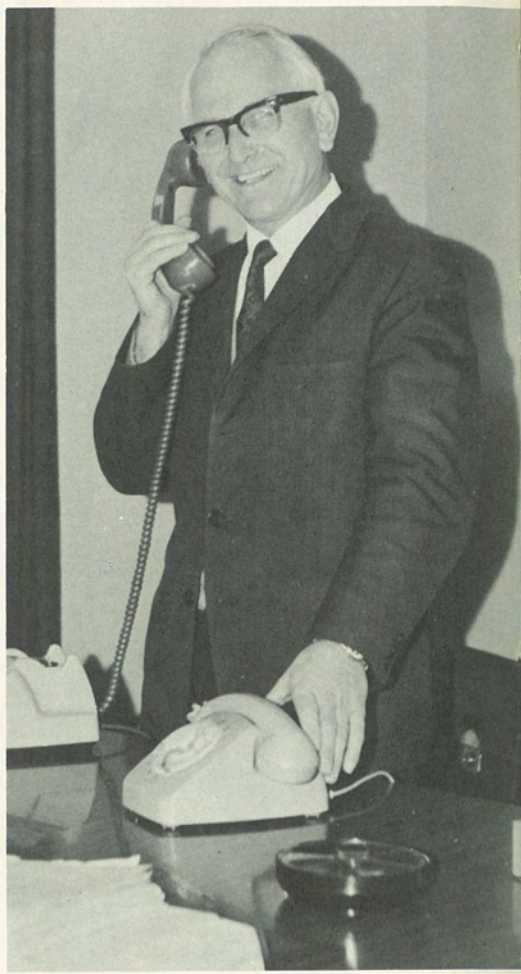

Many horizons are invisible at first sight.
It is God alone that can dissolve this mist, and give men a greater vision of the world that is before them.

E. Gordon McDowell, M.A. (Hons.), Ed.D.
President and Business Manager.

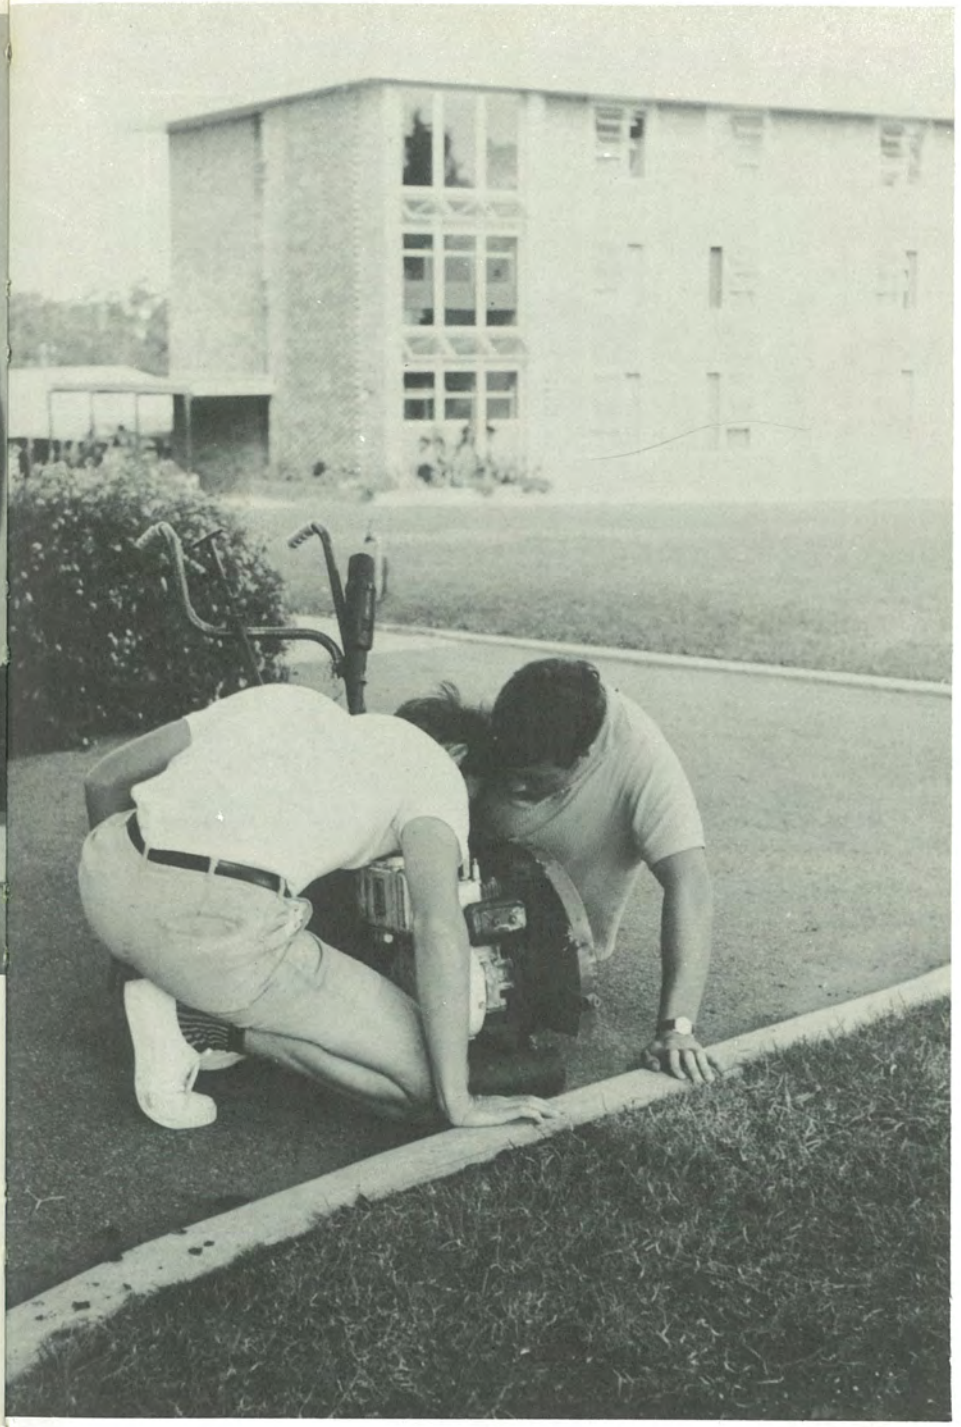

Alwyn P. Salom, M.A., Ph.D.
Academic Dean.

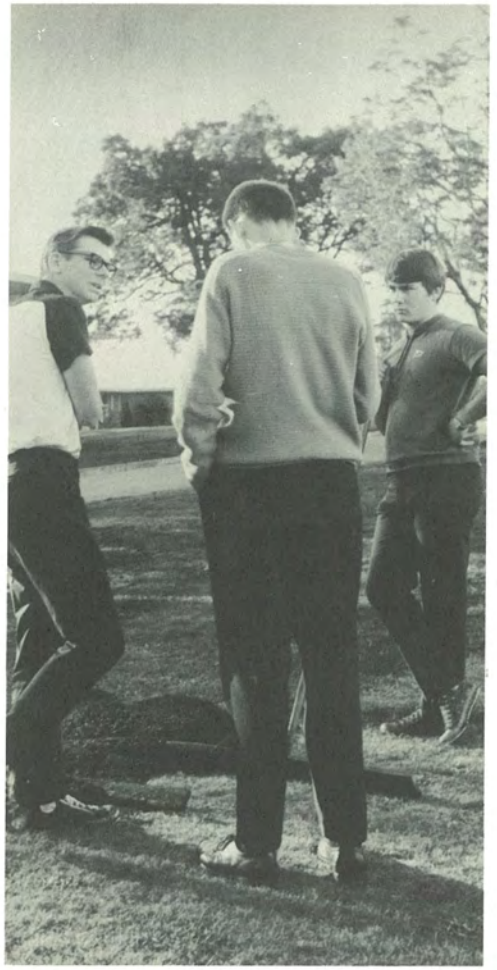

Douglas R. Eliot, F.R.A. (N.Z.)
Assistant Business Manager and Accountant.

ADMINISTRATION:

C.C.O. accounts, changing subjects, timetables, chapel speakers, standards, committees . . .
Order out of chaos.

When engines fail, two heads are better than one.

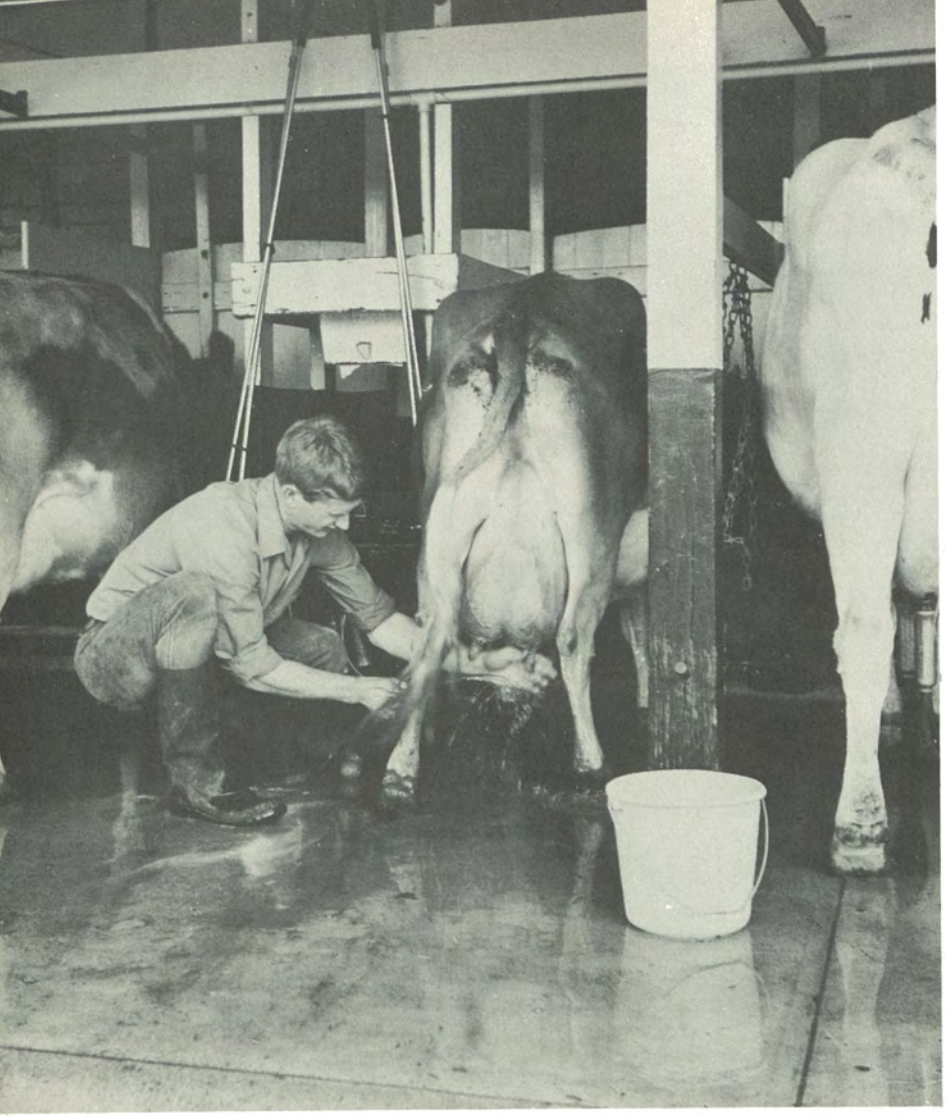

Campus sub-committee—Kevin, Lyndon and Rod.

Oiva Ahjopalo, College Gardener.

CAMPUS:

Keeping the campus thoroughfare a pleasant place for "travellers."

FARM

"Tillers of the soil and keepers of flocks and herds."

Left: Lyn Burton at "udder"end of Farm.

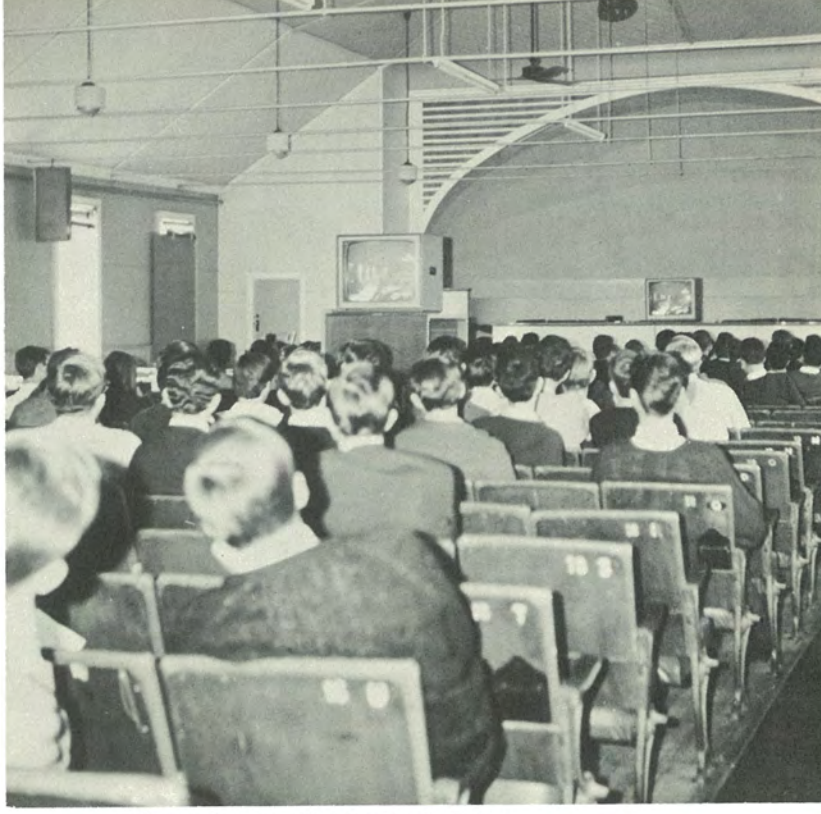

Ian D. Irvine, Farm and Dairy Manager.

Richard Tickle, Farm.

Above: Chapel viewing of lunar landing.
Below: Food for the eyes?

DISPENSARY

Fruit juice
Strepsils
Vitamin C
An unlimited supply and demand.

Left: Assimilation by apprentice scientists.

Above: Eric A. Magnusson, Ph.D. (London), Ph.D. (N.S.W.), A.R.A.C.I., Chairman, Department of Physical and Biological Sciences.

Below: Laurence M. Draper, B.Sc., Ph.D.

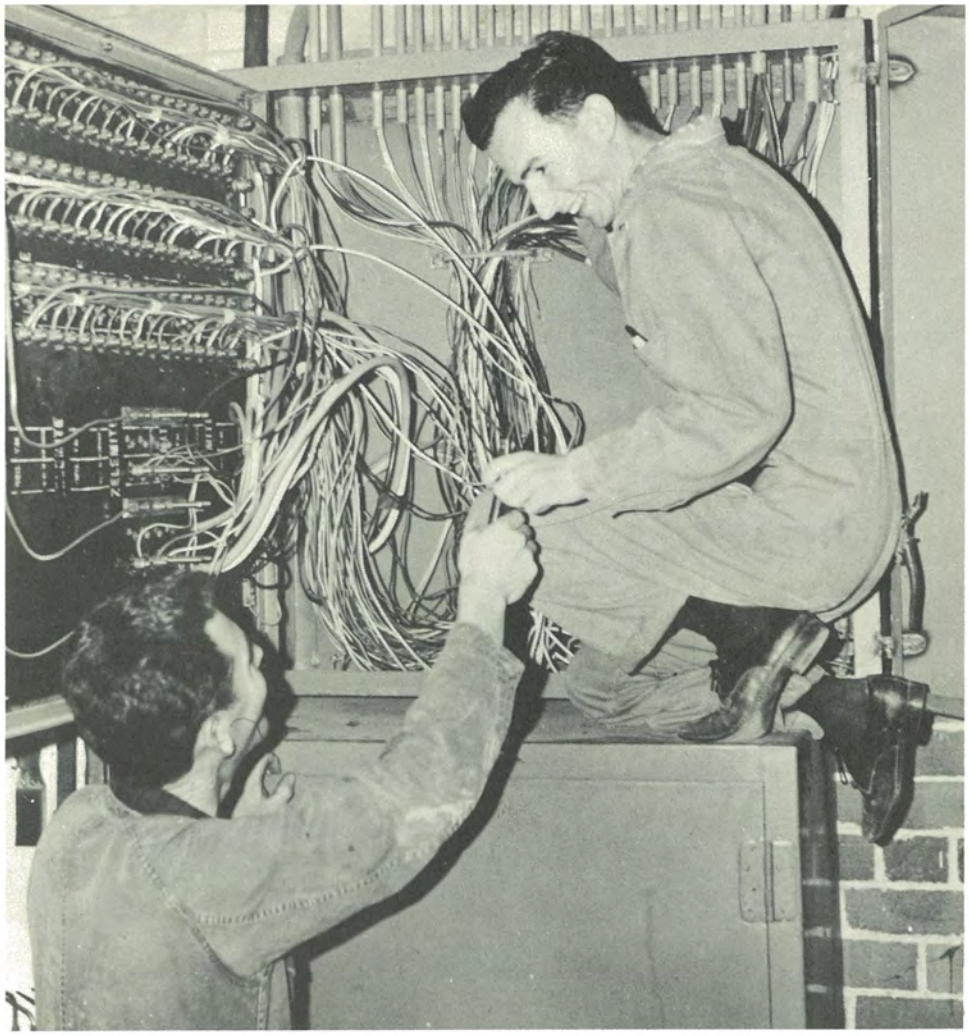

TUESDAY

SCIENCE

Test tubes
electric currents chemicals crystals specimens molecules testing proving hypothesizing

From lecture room to laboratory, theory to experiments,
the science student probes the path,
evaluating, considering.

Science put into practice by Gerhard.

Kenneth A. Thomson, B.Sc. (Hons.), Dip.Ed.

Robert J. Drewer, B.Sc. (Hons.), Ph.D.

William P. Rippon, M.Sc., A.R.A.C.I.

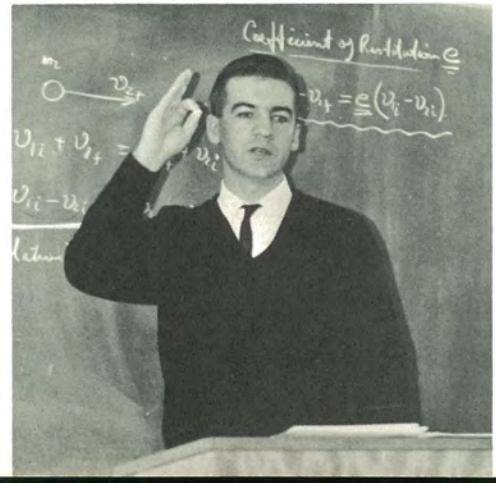

W. Barton Rippon, B.Sc. (Hons.)

Below: Hong Kong flu injection—"Good boy, Kev! Don't cry!"

Right: Convergence for 9.30 chapel period.

CHAPEL—
THE MEETING PLACE OF MINDS

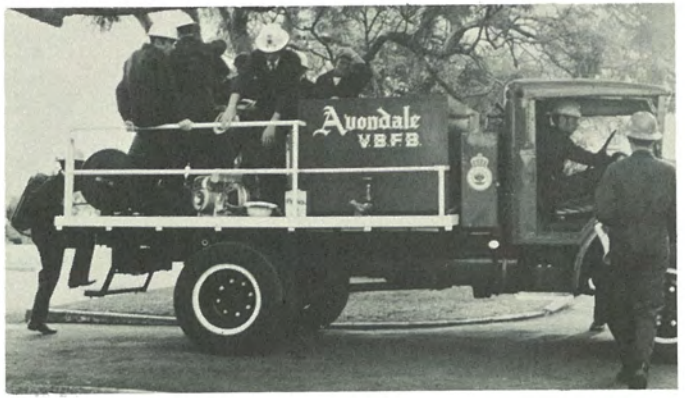

Devotional
vital and inspiring, thought-provoking . . .
. . . humorous
and instructional.

Guess who?

Dr. McDowell unmasked.

All aboard.

The crowd pleasers.

Actions speak louder than words!

FACTORY

Weet-Bix, Weet-Bix and more Weet-Bix, packing, sorting,
and, for some,
long nights
and sleepy classes.

Above: Don and Bruce combine millinery with metallurgy.
Below Centre: Sacking operations with Noel and Neil.
Below Right: William R. Wilson—Factory Manager.

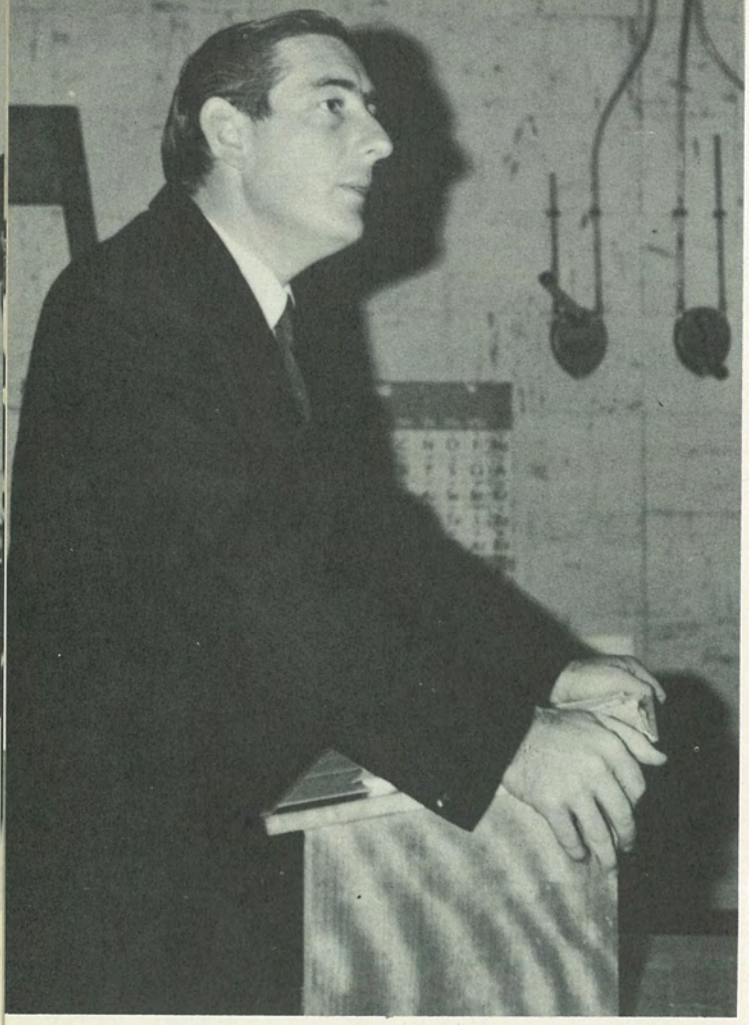

WEDNESDAY

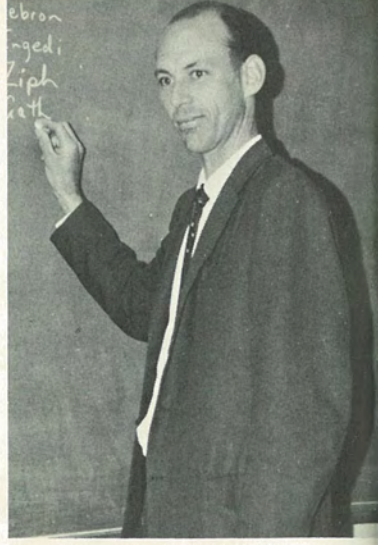

Physical Education methods:
"How far away are my toes?"

SECONDARY TEACHING

To draw youth closer to Him through your living . . .
to set clear goals
and point out
the path to their fulfilment . . .
to show them "wisdom shouting in the streets for a hearing . . ."
to be a teacher.

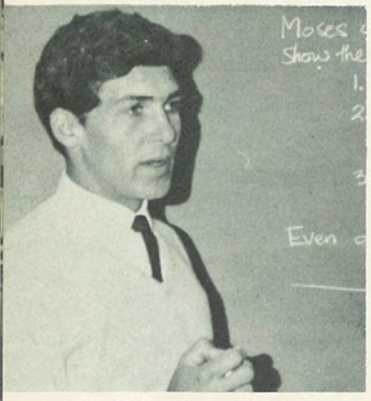

Colin D. Standish, M.A. (Hons.), M. Ed., Ph.D., Chairman, Department of Education and Teacher Training.

Hedley J. Eager, B.Ed.
(W.A. and Melb.)

Mrs. R.E. Rice

Athol W. Grosse, B.A.

Pamela M. McBryde

Roy F. Sodeman

Iris M. Yob

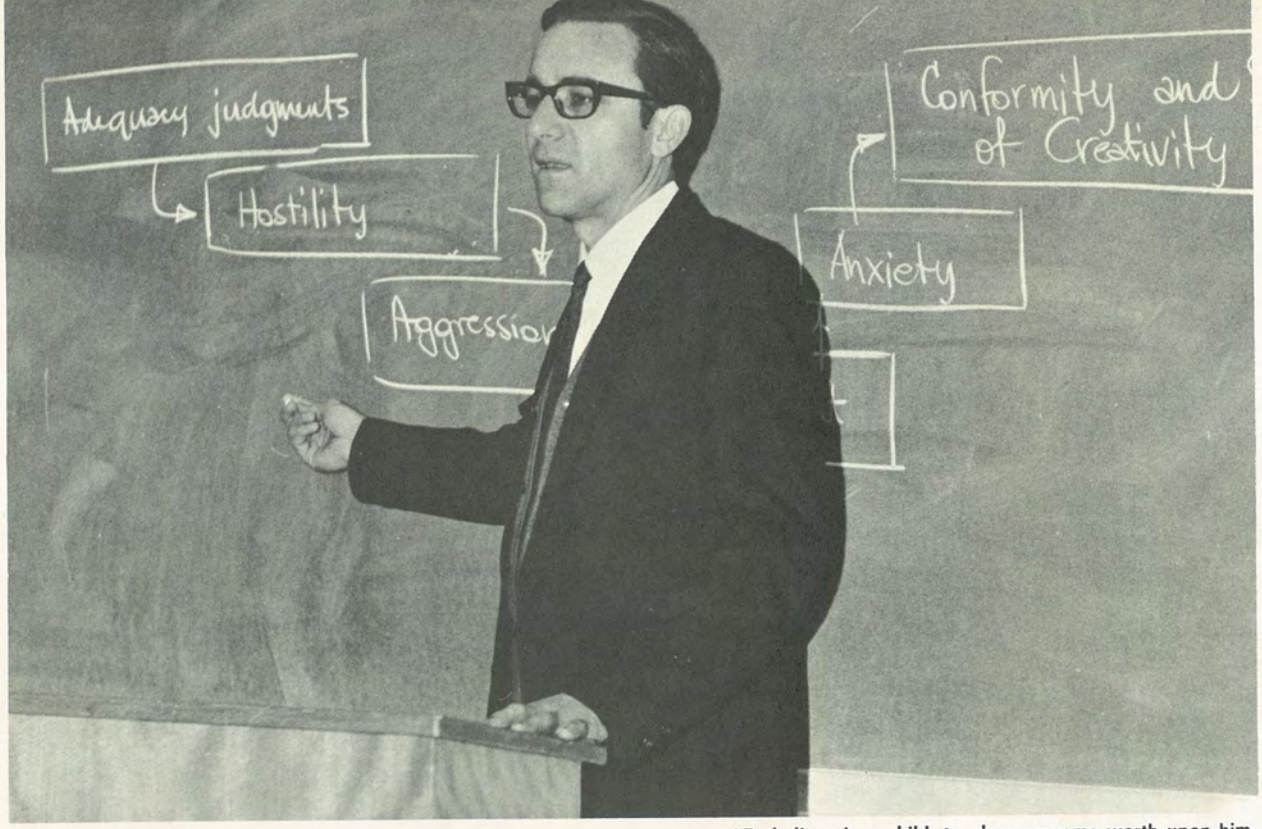

David C. Sutcliffe

"To believe in a child, to place supreme worth upon him, is to develop the best in him."

—Trevor G. Lloyd, B.A.

Robert D. Dixon, M. A.

Harold T. Irvine

Primary teachers—Dave and Bob.

Undisguised pleasure provided at Schools Concert.

PRIMARY TEACHING

Chalk-dust in your hair and on your clothes, the smell of duplicating spirit on your hands,
following the Master Teacher is often rigorous. . . .
Aids
timegraphs lesson plans
late nights motivation—presentation—activity—and the warm feeling of trust and love in a child's eyes.

Walter M. Dawson—Headmaster

Jillian M. Eager

Esther E. Hunt

Glenda J. Delaney

Margaret E. Knowles

Eleanor J. Thomson

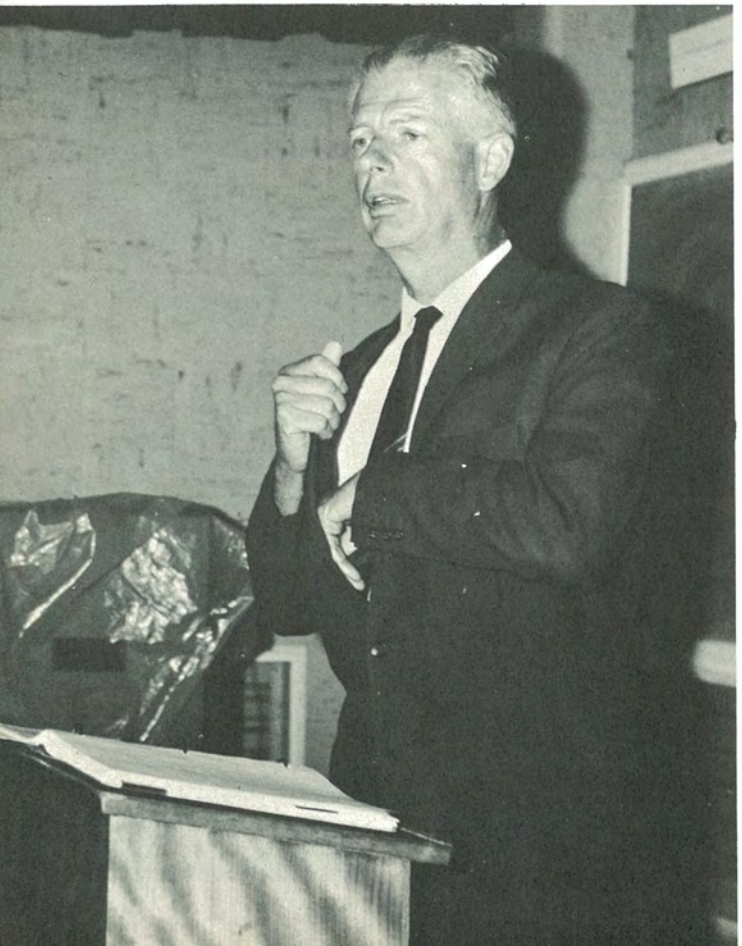

HUMANITIES

To understand humanity.

Noel P. Clapham, M.A., Dip.Ed., Admin., Ph.D., Chairman, Department of Humanities.

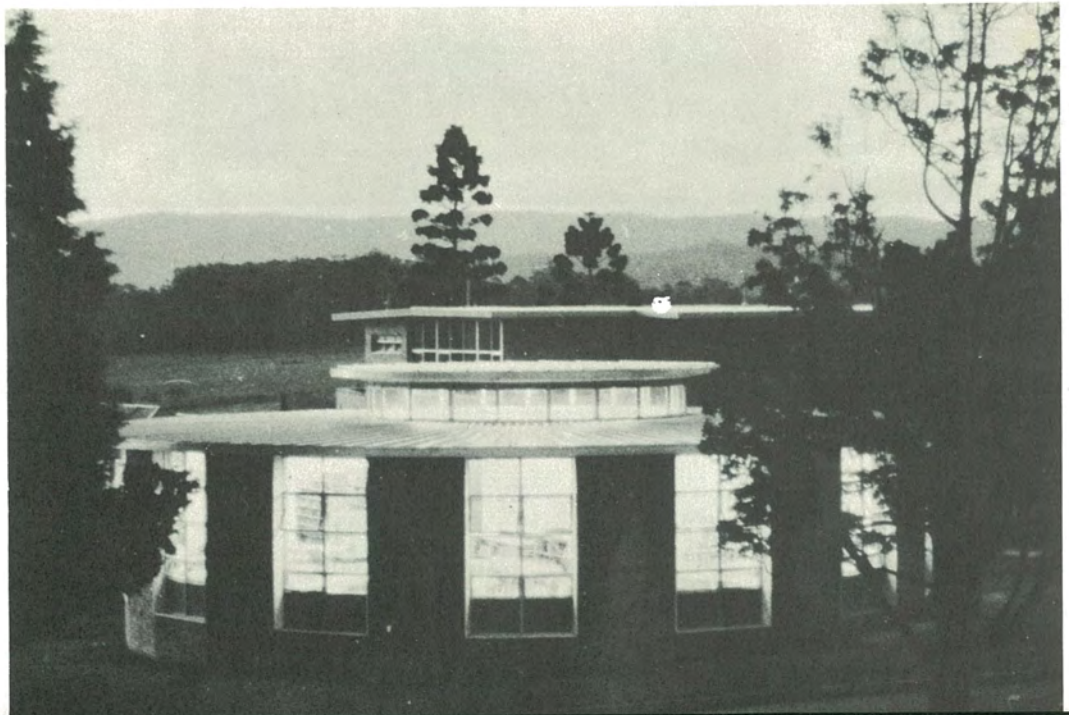

Archibald L. Hefren, M.A., Dip.Ed.

Bernice Underwood, B.A., Dip.Ed., Dip.Mus.

Library at twilight.

Terry and Graham loafing.

CAFETERIA

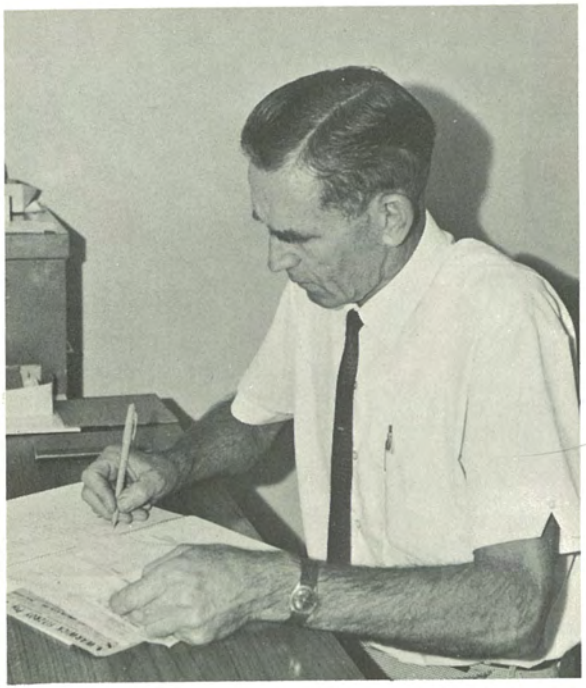

Food for thought.

May Phare cracks a yolk.

Cafeteria contemplations.

Edgar E. Osman—Cafeteria Director.

Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Jackson—Cafeteria Assistants.

Glenn is twenty-one today—Russ, our Assistant Dean, likes parties, too.

PARTIES

Sometimes the college student pauses in his journey for a brief moment to enjoy food, fellowship and a little festivity.

THURSDAY

Education—
a balanced programme, training the mind
and the hand
in useful employment.
The courses in Fine and Applied Arts are dynamic practical vital.

WOODWORK & METALWORK

Practical brainstorms and useful art.

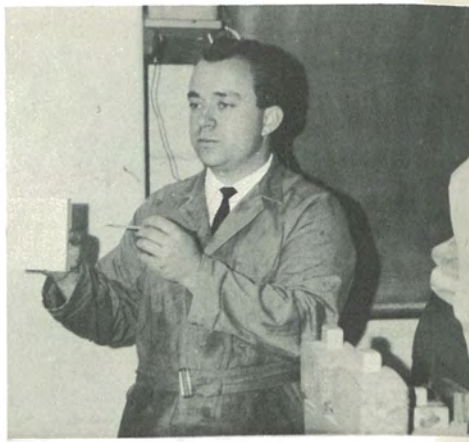

Warren A. Simmonds, A.S.T.C., Metal Work.

Brian B. Houliston, Chairman, Department of Applied Arts.

The house that Bob built.

Barry W. Plane, Woodwork and Craft.

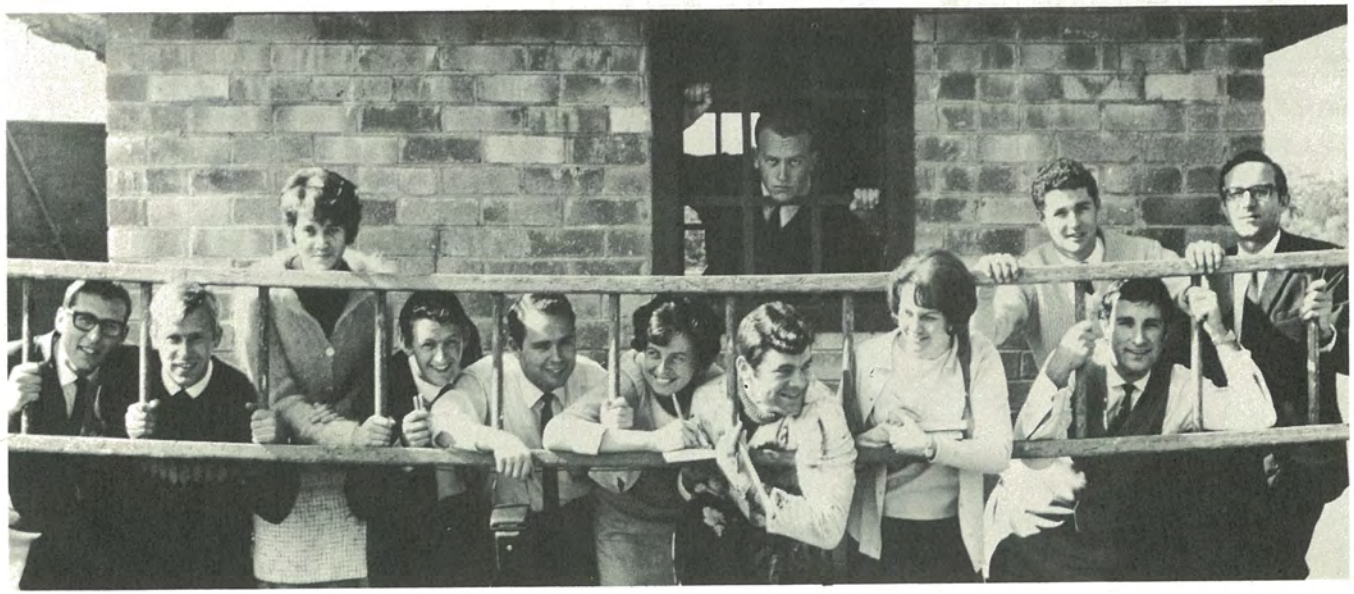

Colleen, bird-watching.

PROMOTING JACARANDA

Kevin Howse's Sales Committee.

Production Committee—all glare, no responsibility.

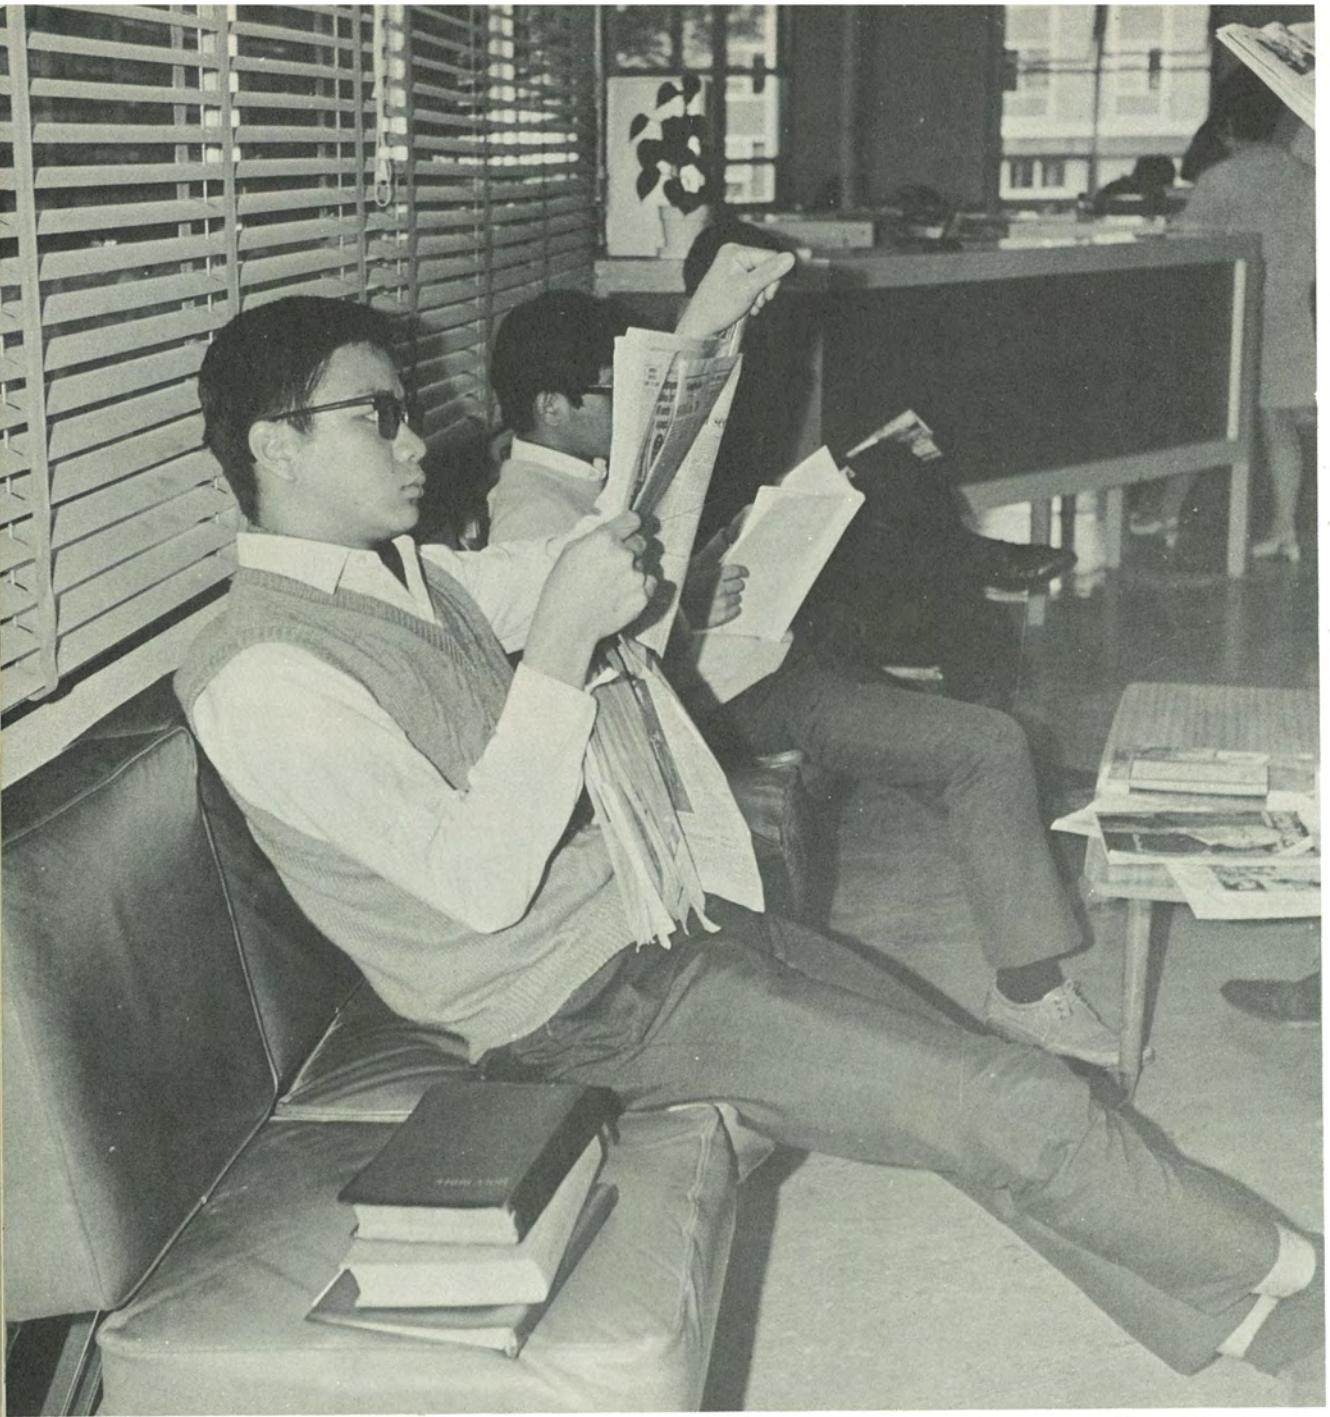

A barrowload of enthusiasm.

Jac's comedian—David Rodgers.

Inspired to sell.

Study suspended—Kho and Pak browsing.

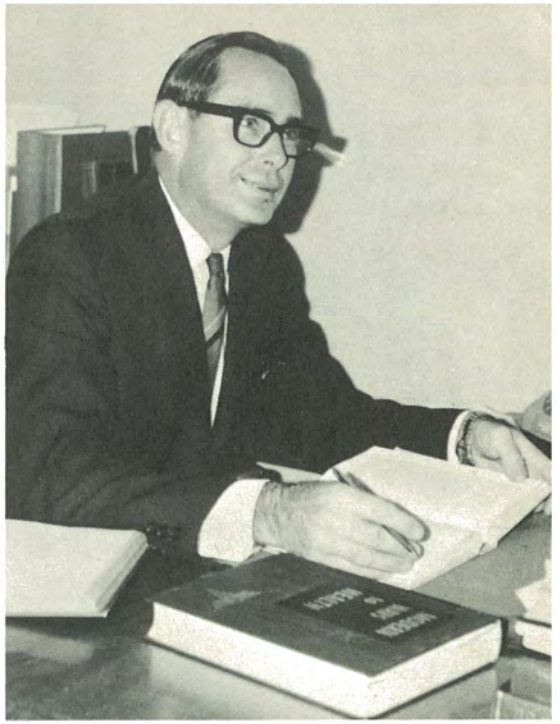

LIBRARY

Frantic searchings,
feverish writing,
essays—
forty pages or not more than a thousand;
assignments,
research,
line up for desk reserves.
Exam-weary minds
congregate in the library and gather strength from well-ordered rows of books and company of like fate.

Cyril studies on foot.

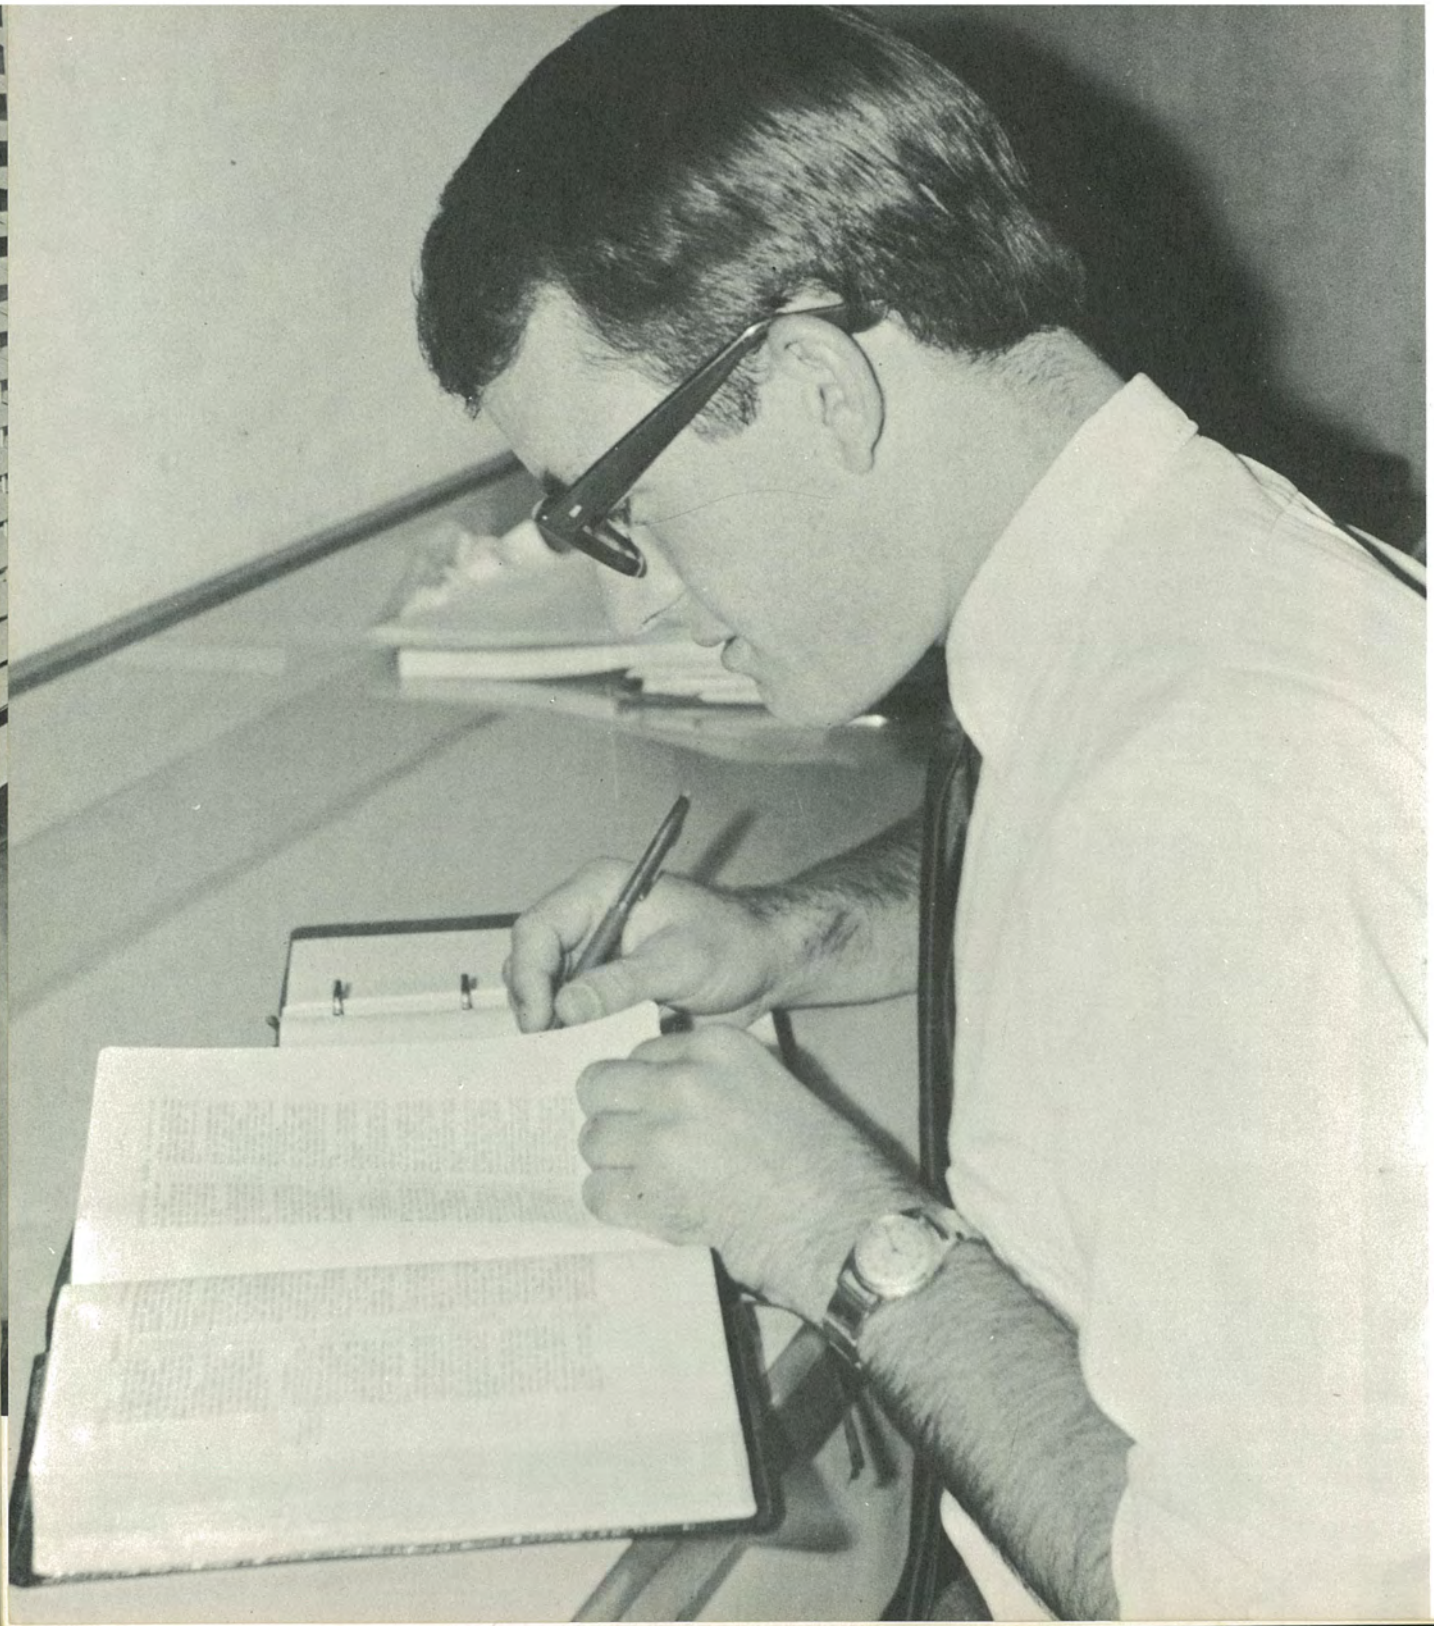

Brian H. R. Townend, Librarian.

Heather keeps a tab on our reading habits.

Library Assistants: Olive Blayden, Bettina Ward, Cheryl Standish.

STUDYING IN DORMITORY

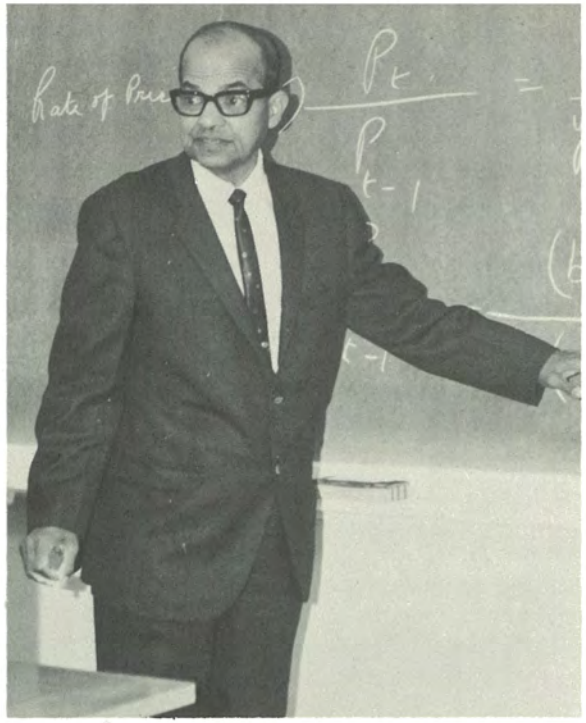

"Only by such communion—the communion of mind with mind and heart with heart, of the human with the divine—can be communicated that vitalizing energy which it is the work of true education to impart. It is only life that begets life."—"Education," page 84.

Graham Mitchell, A.A.S.A., A.C.I.S., Chairman, Department of Commercial Education.

Eric M. Hokin, A.A.S.A., A.C.I.S.

Ronald E. Rice, M.A.

Dorothy Macfarlane—Kay shown how.

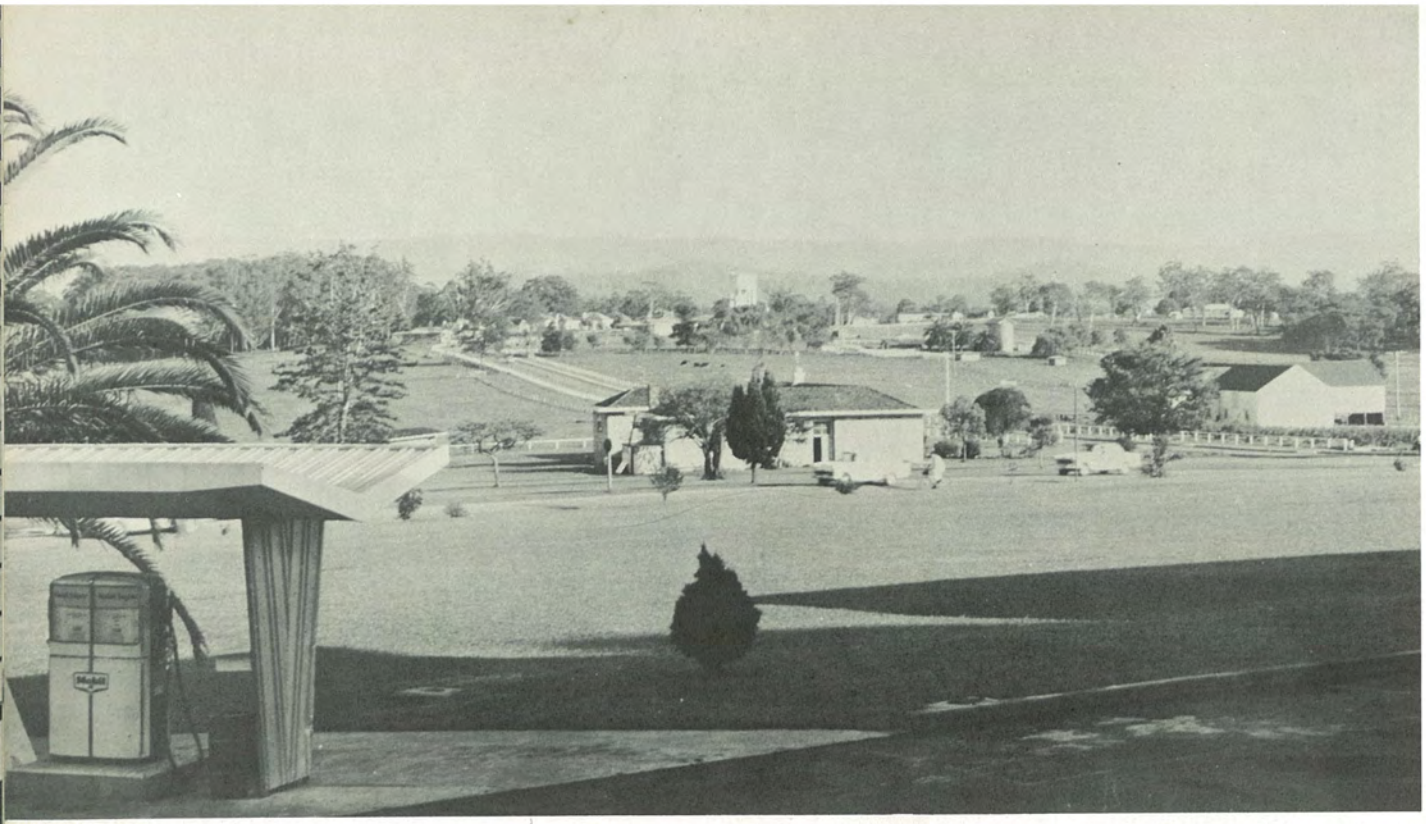

Doreen Whisker

Helen M. Duffy

BUSINESS

Integrity honesty generosity . . .
the character of a Christian business man.

The balcony of the White Building overlooks Primary School and Farm.

From Left: Narelle Hick, Cashier; Helen Lewis, Ledger; Lynette Dose, Secretary; Daphne Were, Ledger.

Daphne Townend, Secretary to the President.

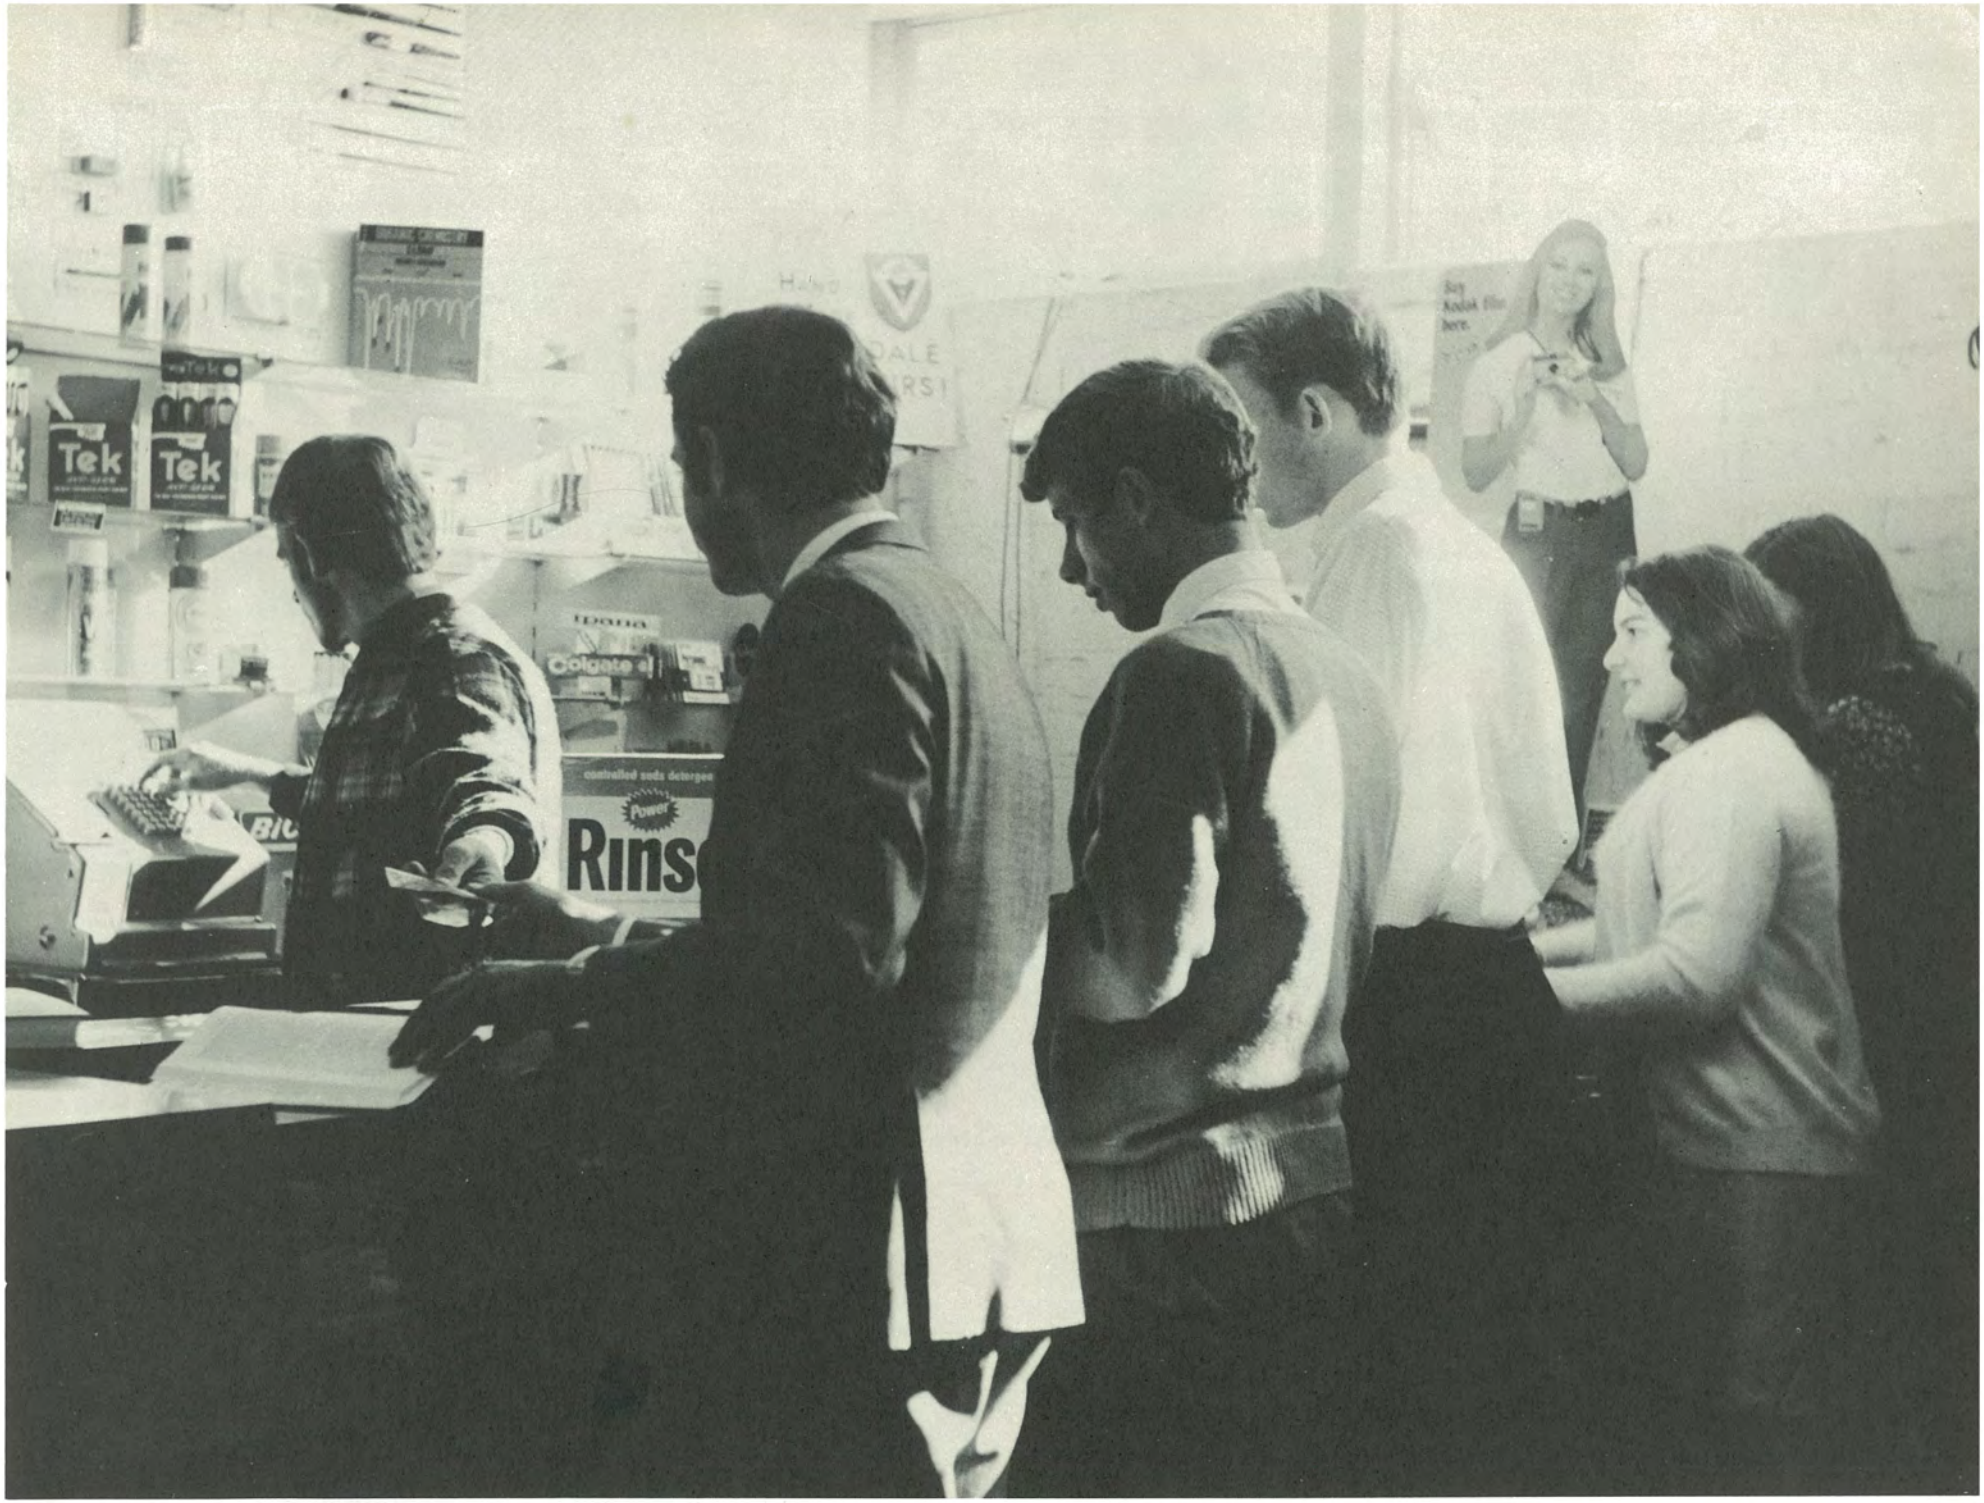

Assistant Registrar, Dorothy Cottier.

W. John Stafford, Assistant Accountant.

Toothbrushes, toothpaste, soap powder, ball-point pens.
You name it, the college store may have it.

To feed the "inner man."

KITCHEN

"The ability to cook healthful foods in an appetizing way"— a science
and a sacred duty.

Rita McDowell—Home Economics.

"You don't say!"—Scene from High School Cooking Demonstration.

Joy expresses personality through art.

Beautiful disturbing colour thoughts like lines dancing form and design patterned communication.

Morriss S. Kennedy—Art.

SEWING

Pins and paper patterns, cutting and fitting—is it really cheaper this way?

Joan M. Irvine—Dressmaking.

Joan Lowe—Dressmaking.

"A joyful noise."

3/4 or 6/8

MUSIC

Beyond words the hidden longings of the soul
find expression in music.

David Clark, B.Mus., Dip.Ed., A.Mus.A., Assistant Director of Music.

Jean Kilroy—Voice.

Yvonne Thrift, A.Mus.A.—Piano.

Muriel Window, L.Mus.A.—Theory and Piano.

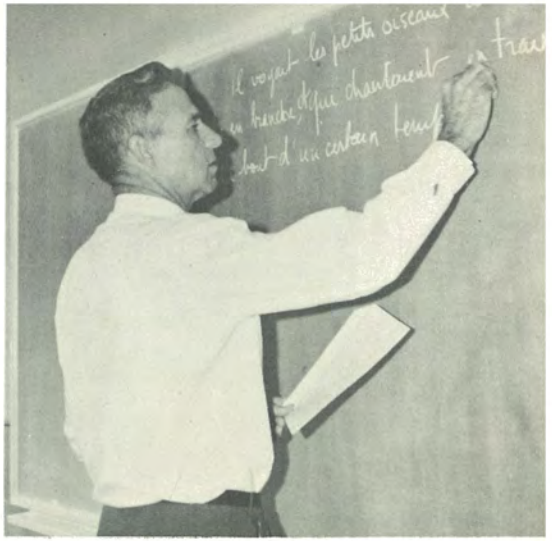

Barry J. Westley, B.A.—5th and 6th Form studies.

George A. Currow, M.A.—5th and 6th Form studies.

John P. Reynaud—French.

6th Formers outdoor physics experiment.

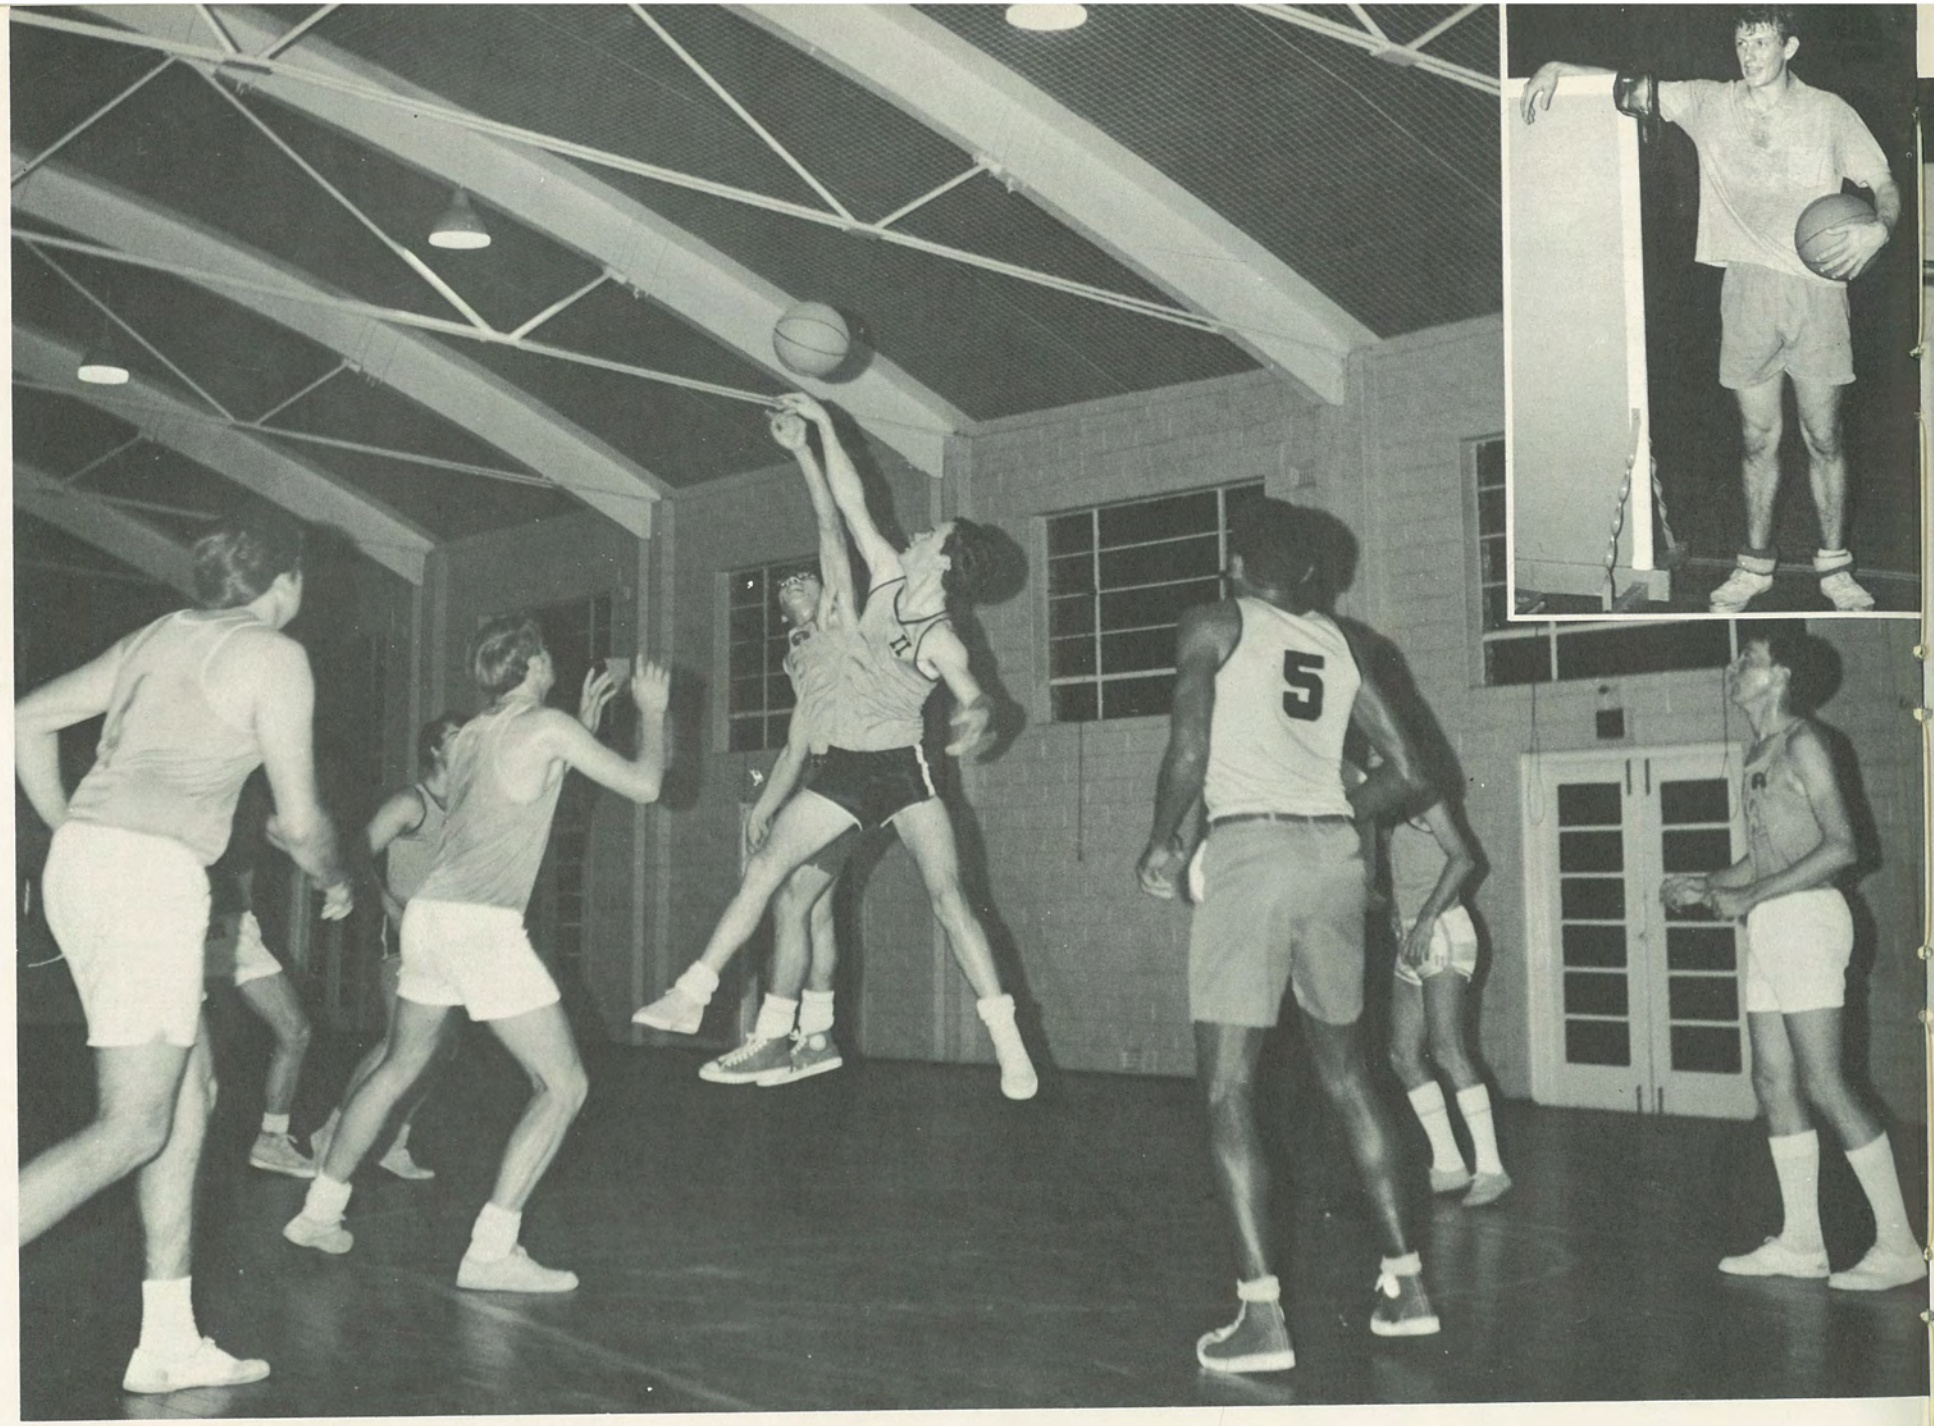

FRIDAY

SUBJECTS & HIGHER SCHOOL CERTIFICATE

To matric or not to matric . . . an unwanted question.

A week's frustrations forgotten—energy and perspiration expended on the basketball court.

"What are you going to do with it now, Col?"

Footwork replaces brainwork probably.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON: RECREATION

Concentrating on muscle instead of mind developing the whole man . . .

Pete a-hunting.

SABBATH PREPARATION

Queueing up for your favourite shower
a quick haircut dusting and sweeping ironing and shoe polishing a final check on nails under the hairdryer Friday afternoon
the Preparation Day.

Left: Week-end leave. Roger and Norm seek sympathy.
Below: Reflections at entrance to Andre Hall.

"Which carpet did you sweep it under?"

Ironing out a problem.

"Whoops!" "Sorry!"

"Short back and sides, Byron?"

Peter prepares for the Dean's room check.

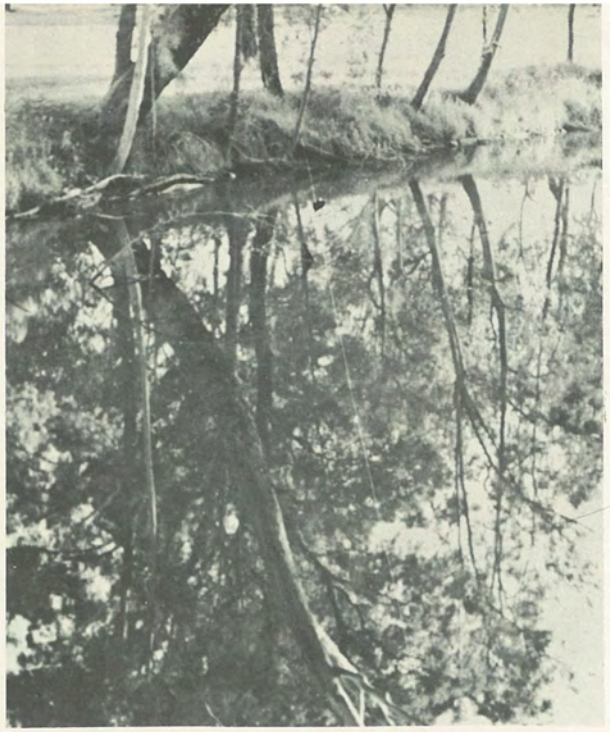

Some sit, some "spit and polish."

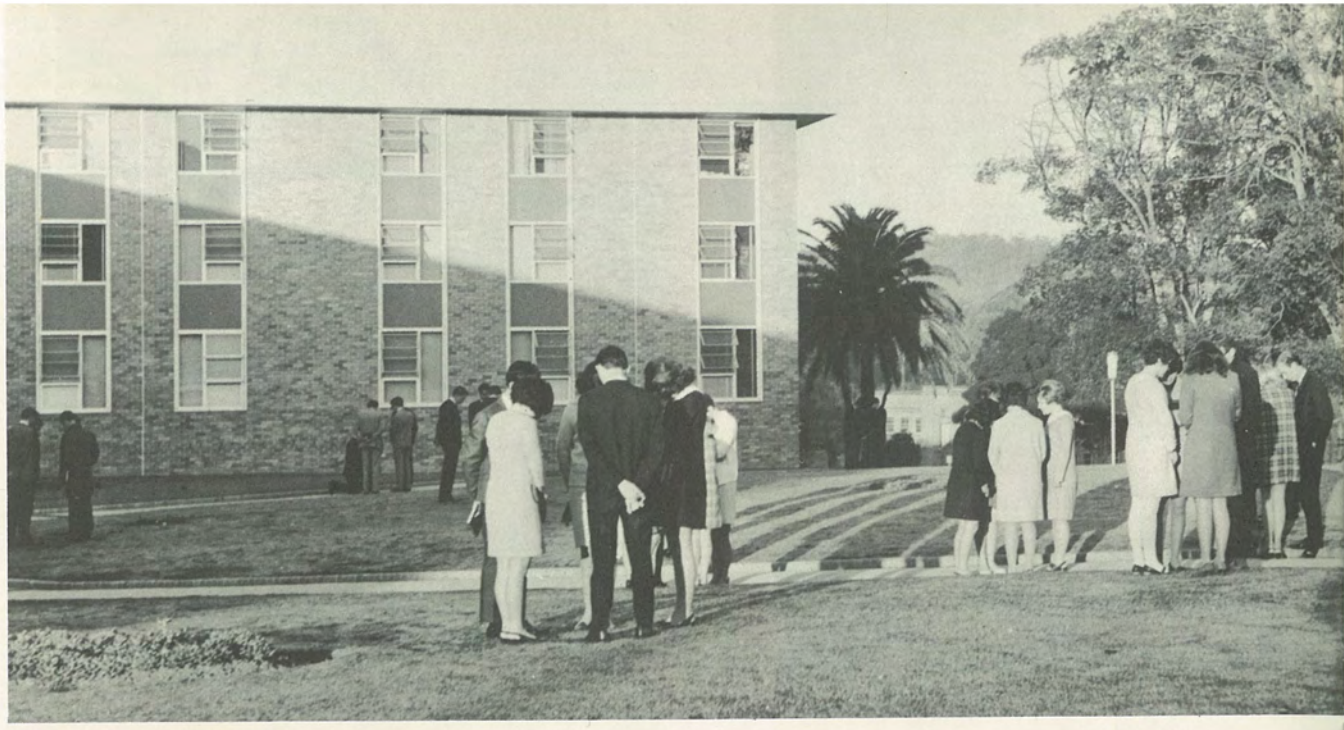

OPENING OF SABBATH

Gradually the busy hum of college dies out.
With the setting sun the toll of vesper bells calls a college to worship remembering their Creator. . . .

"In quietness and confidence—strength."

Early morning communion.

SABBATH MORNING

"The glory of God
in the morning"

Welcome to Sabbath school.

Above: "Suffer little children to come unto Me"—dedication service.

Left: Church service in the auditorium.

Below: Sandra on branch Sabbath school work.

CHURCH

to see again clearly the end of the road
the reason for the journey.
To dedicate self
in devotion and sincerity.
Surely, God is in this place.

. . . excitement refinement fun names called incessantly to the vestibule Lyceum concerts games evenings student programmes
guest speakers film evenings people laughing talking listening . . .
enjoying each other's company.

Below: Behind the scenes.
Above Right: Kingston Trio plus One.

FAREWELL TO THE THRIFTS

Orpheans Concert—a college says farewell a much-loved couple friendly and helpful
a dynamic choir leader.
We will miss you "Thrifty."

A final performance.

Farewell!

"I'm happy, and I'm not."

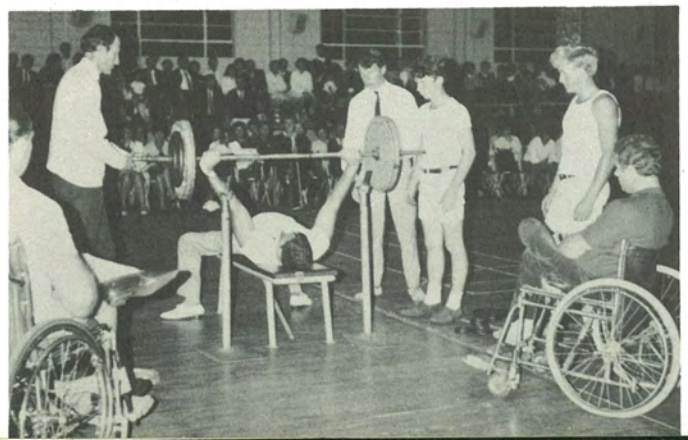

Lady drivers' predicament.

Wheel-chair duel.

Visiting paraplegic shows how it's done.

Appeal preparation.

"Oo, I forgot my toothbrush."

"How shall I approach this house?"

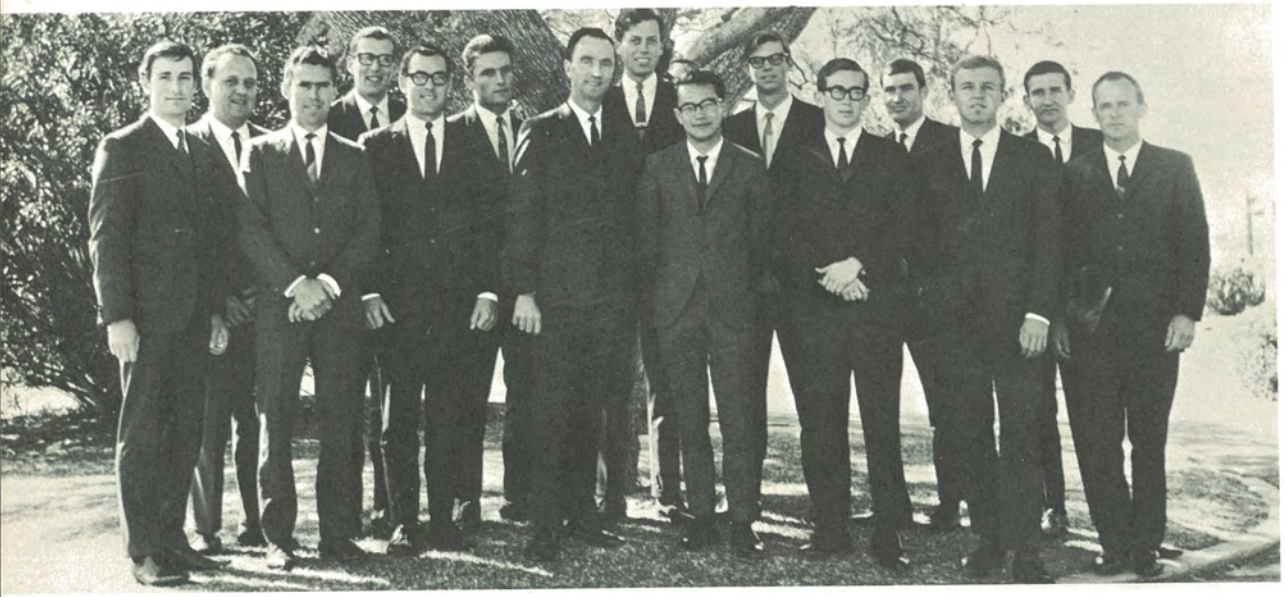

APPEAL FOR MISSIONS

We talk of the need
we discuss it and decide what to do about it inside the four walls of the classroom.
Appeal for Missions
makes a practical application.
Knocking
on doors.
The world is in need.
The need is Christ.

Below: Week of Devotion speakers.

WEEKS OF PRAYER & DEVOTION

A campus in prayer.
Lives rededicated
and redirected.
A special week on the road—
Week of Prayer, and Christ
a beloved fellow traveller.

IAN WALKER

He walked this path just a little while.
Just long enough
to make friends to mourn him;
long enough to feel within him the reality of life pulsating like joy;
to know pain and laughter,
joy and sorrow.
Just long enough
for the inscrutable purpose of God.

When you buy audio equipment...

SAVE AT ENCEL ELECTRONICS!

Tape recorders, amplifiers, turntables, tone arms, cartridges, speaker systems, loudspeakers . . . these are the items you'll save considerably on when you purchase from Encel Electronics.

Many components are exclusive to Encel Stereo Centres . . . Lux, Cosmos, Truvox, Micro, Celestion, Sound, Sonics, Connoisseur — to mention a few . . . and you save more when you buy direct from the importer. At the same time Australia's widest range of high fidelity equipment awaits your selection — at Australia's lowest prices.

Be sure to get an Encel price before you make your investment. Mail orders are care-packed and despatched anywhere in Australia.

Good morning! Good morning! Good morning! Good morning! Good morning!

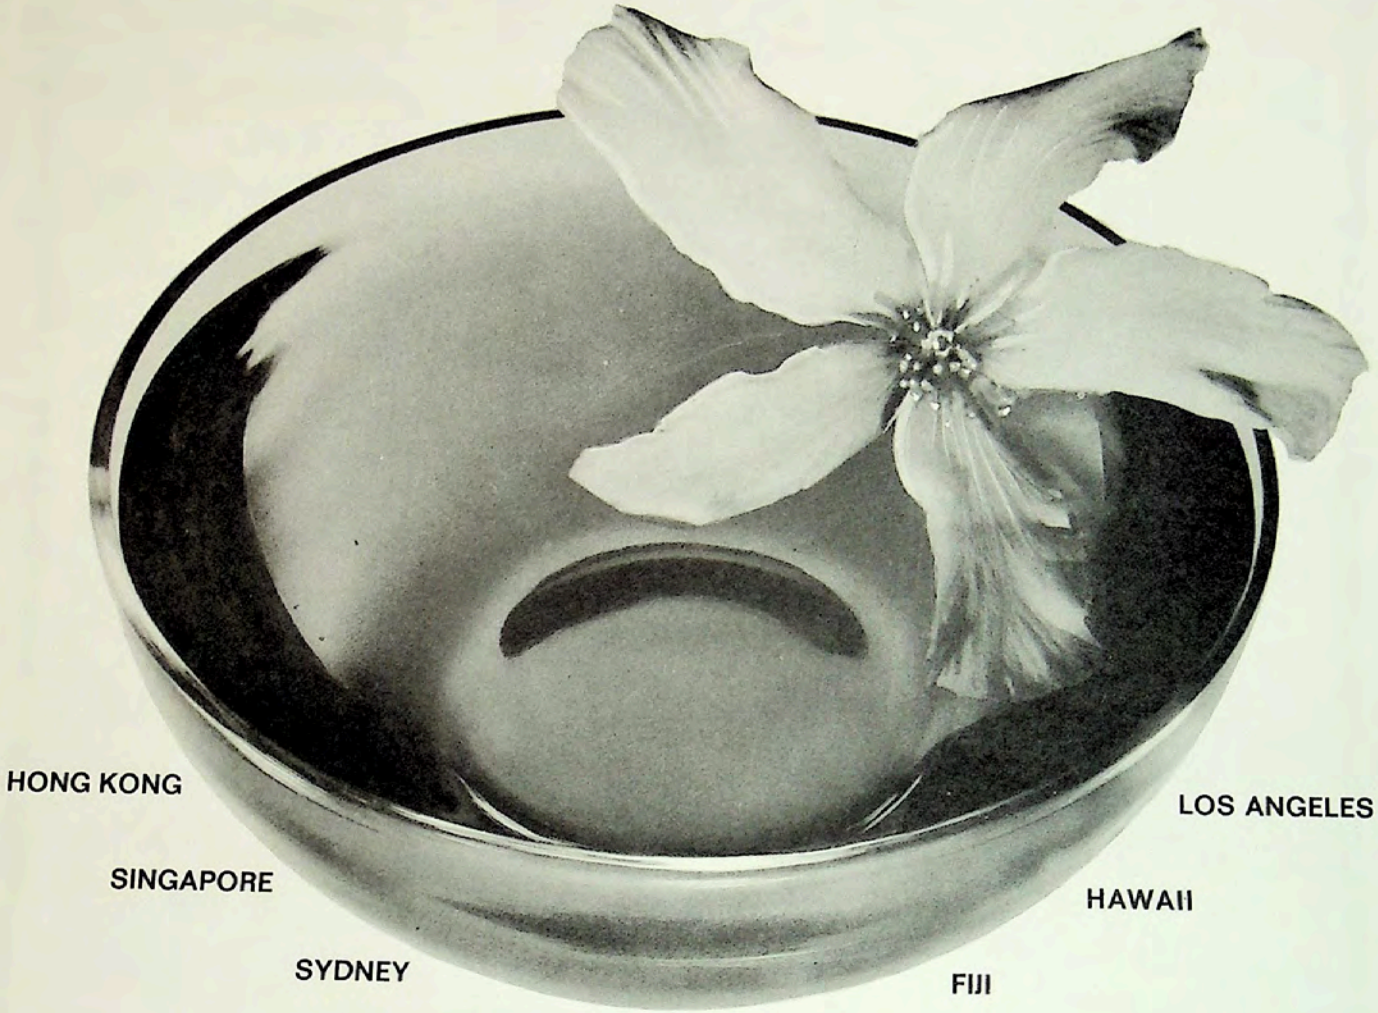

You'll get just as many good mornings out of the new-look Weet-Bix pack as you got out of the old one.

And a hearty helping of whole grain Weet-Bix natural wheat goodness still costs you a low one and a half cents.

So you see, nothing important has changed.

The whole Pacific is our dish . . . Let's make it yours!

NOW—AIR NEW ZEALAND LINKS THE EAST WITH THE U.S.A. VIA THE SOUTH PACIFIC

The Pacific's wide blue bowl is home-territory to AIR NEW ZEALAND. Now you can fly all round it by new long-range DC-8s, perfect version of the world's most preferred jetliners. New accents on comfort and quietness. And a bright new concept: Five Star Jetline Service, dedicated to you. Five Star? Food you'd rate outstanding anywhere. And quietly thoughtful attention all the way.

AIR NEW ZEALAND, the airline that goes to more trouble to make your flight a great pleasure.

There actually is a high-precision watch especially designed for riding, diving, roughing it. Its name: Omega Seamaster. The remarkable thing about the self-winding Seamaster—it's as handsome as it is rugged. A famous, highly accurate timepiece, of course, fully in keeping with our policy of serving a demanding clientele with watches of outstanding, enduring quality.
