THE PROMISE

New South Wales, 1850. A colony of soldiers, settlers and convicts. A time of conquest and sometimes, of love and redemption!

If it wasn't for HIM, Alytha might have been glad. The long voyage to the colony of New South Wales is nearing its end. The terrible gales of the Roaring Forties have finally subsided and new life stirs within her. For the first time since being orphaned, Alytha has found a true friend.

But, instead of gladness, Alytha is overwhelmed by dread. A terrible secret anchors her to Dareth, and thoughts of HIM taunt her. Only her unborn child stops her from leaping overboard.

Now another storm is coming, one that will require all of her courage to survive.

"A beautiful story of tears, love and redemption." Zoey

"Once you start, you won't be able to stop." Fiona

"Heartbreaking and inspiring - a real page turner." Margaret
